Subtle Deceivers:

Subtle Deceivers Wayne H. Miller,1993-01-01 , Hume's Problem Solved Gerhard Schurz,2019-05-07 A new approach to Hume s problem of induction that justifies the optimality of induction at the level of meta induction Hume s problem of justifying induction has been among epistemology s greatest challenges for centuries In this book Gerhard Schurz proposes a new approach to Hume s problem Acknowledging the force of Hume s arguments against the possibility of a noncircular justification of the reliability of induction Schurz demonstrates instead the possibility of a noncircular justification of the optimality of induction or more precisely of meta induction the application of induction to competing prediction models Drawing on discoveries in computational learning theory Schurz demonstrates that a regret based learning strategy attractivity weighted meta induction is predictively optimal in all possible worlds among all prediction methods accessible to the epistemic agent Moreover the a priori justification of meta induction generates a noncircular a posteriori justification of object induction Taken together these two results provide a noncircular solution to Hume s problem Schurz discusses the philosophical debate on the problem of induction addressing all major attempts at a solution to Hume s problem and describing their shortcomings presents a series of theorems accompanied by a description of computer simulations illustrating the content of these theorems with proofs presented in a mathematical appendix and defends refines and applies core insights regarding the optimality of meta induction explaining applications in neighboring disciplines including forecasting sciences cognitive science social epistemology and generalized evolution theory Finally Schurz generalizes the method of optimality based justification to a new strategy of justification in epistemology arguing that optimality justifications can avoid the problems of justificatory circularity and regress This is an Answer to John Wiggan's Book [i.e. "Antichrist's Strongest Hold overturned"], spread up and down in Lancashire, Cheshire and Wales, who is a Baptist&a Monarchy-man. Wherein may be seen how he exalts himself, against Christ the light, that doth enlighten every man. And also some of his, and his peoples erroneous principles, and assertions, which he and his people held in a dispute, with some of the Quakers. And also an answer to his queries in his book. And also some queries which was propounded to him, which he would never answer to this day, and also some of his assertions, which he could never make good, and likewise an answer to a second challenge ... From the prisoners at Lancaster ... Thomas Curwen, William Houlden, Henery Wood, William Wilson. Also here is an answer to his appendix annexed to the book by Margaret Fell. MS. notes Thomas Curwen,1665 Our Christian Classics: Readings from the Best Divines, with Notices of Biographical and Critical James Hamilton,1857 The Complete Works of Thomas Manton, D.D. Thomas Manton,William G. Harris,1873 The Evidence of Prophecy: Historical Testimony to the Truth of the Bible Alexander Keith,1874 The evidence of prophecy Alexander Keith,1872 Discovery and Conquests of the North-West, with the History of Chicago... Rufus Blanchard,1881 Sermon on the Mount Arthur Waddington Pink, 2008-08 Pink preached in many places in the world before he retired to a remote part of Scotland where he issued a monthly magazine and taught some 100 men by mail. Some who have been stung by the astute observations in this book have told others not to buy it because it is too controversial. And some even try to pin the charge of legalism on it. This is false and since when is controversial a reason not to buy a helpful commentary. This reviewer cannot see all that Pink sees in these verses. But that is not to say that what he sees is not there. He is a very able expositor, one who breaks new ground yet adheres to the age-proven theology. There are things in this book which are in no other, so it is important to anyone's understanding of the Sermon on the Mount. Both the Beatitudes and the Lord's Prayer come from The Sermon on the Mount, one of the very best expositions of that part of the Scriptures. Originally all these come from Pink's expositions in his magazine Studies in the Scriptures. Do not expect to read the usual comments on these passages of Scripture. Pink was an original thinker and he called no man master but sought his views of the Scriptures directly from his Lord and Master Jesus Christ through prayer and through comparing Scripture with Scripture until he gained understanding. The result is some controversial statements here and there. In his discussion of the Beatitudes the reader will find short but keen observations, a setting of things right. Each Beatitude is considered briefly yet fully. Quotations from Andrew Fuller and John Brown of Edinburgh are very helpful also. It is one of Pink's strongest points that he knew when and how to quote from other great writers. His Hebrews is a great compendium of all the excellent thoughts on that book of the Bible through the ages. In the Lord's Prayer Pink argues for the continued use of this form of prayer. And no one can say that Pink was in any sense a ritualist. His quotations from Manton, Gill, Perkins, etc. very much enhance the value of this book. The thoughts are pure and holy, the very kind of reading that will lift one's spirit and lead to a closer walk with Jesus. The Discovery and Conquests of the Northwest Rufus Blanchard, 1880 *The Evidence of Prophecy; partly selected and abridged, with additional reflections, ... from a work by ...
