M. Lau,2000 SUBSTANCE & SHADOW Henry 1811-1882 James,2016-08-29 The Poetry of Han-shan Hanshan,Robert G. Henricks,1990-01-01 This is an annotated English translation of the poetry of Han shan Cold Mountain a 7th or 8th century Chinese Buddhist recluse who wrote many poems about his life alone in the hills Many of his poems describe the mountains where he lived in dramatic yet appealing terms while at the same time symbolizing in Zen fashion the Buddhist quest for enlightenment Han shan became a cult figure in the Ch an Zen tradition and legends portray him and his companion Shih te as eccentrics who said and did nonsensical things Han shan does often write on unusual topics with some of his poems being clever insights that just happen to be metric and rhymed His language is simple and direct his images and symbols fresh and bold While the literary value of his work has for the most part been overlooked this book provides line by line literary analysis of some of the more artistically interesting poems Henricks work represents therefore a major contribution to the study of Chinese literature and Chinese religion The Substance and the Shadow Paul Smith,2007-10-15 In 1878 the author Marius Roux a noted friend of Emile Zola and Paul C zanne published La proie et l'ombre a little known roman clef featuring a thinly disguised C zanne as the main character Germain Rambert The text prominently features several conversations drawn from famous Impressionist discussions on the nature of art La proie et l'ombre offers a unique insight into the thoughts and lives of the Impressionists C zanne scholar Paul Smith has resurrected this all but forgotten novel recognizing its value in expanding our understanding of the Impressionists world in general and C zanne s in particular This translation titled The Substance and the Shadow also brings to the foreground the effects of a burgeoning capitalist economy on the artistic practices of the period. With changes in the Salon and the dealer system art in France was no longer reserved for the privileged few and artists increasingly found themselves attempting to appeal to the merchant classes. Art had become a commercial endeavor in ways never before imagined and the story details Rambert's and by extension Czanne's attempts to cope with the shift. In a substantial introductory essay Paul Smith discusses the nature of the roman clef and its use as a historical document and provides an examination of the relationship between Roux's characters and their real life counterparts.

Knowledge Hierarchies in Transnational Education Jing Qi, 2015-04-24 Transnational education seeks equivalence in standards and or relevance of outcomes through the transfer of Western theories concepts and methods. Utilising a critique interpretative approach Jing Qi argues that equivalence relevance oriented approaches to transnational education assume the legitimacy of the global knowledge hierarchy. Euro American educational theories are imposed as defaults in non Western educational communities of imagined consensus. Grounded in a study of a five year transnational teacher education and community capacity building program in Northern Chile the book investigates the relationships between theoretical knowledge knowledge hierarchies and critique. Transnational education communities are recognised as sites of critiques where conflictual and conceptual dissensus disrupts global and local knowledge hierarchies. Critique is deployed by educational actors in their everyday engagement in transnational education to stage dissensus which constantly re draws the lines of possibility for knowledge co construction. A matrix mapping system is designed to chart and theorise the Chilean educational actors critiques along the trail of concept translation learning application and innovation of knowledge hierarchies which operate at and across global transnational local and the newly created local global levels. This book examines how these critiques modulate the ascendancy of knowledge hierarchies to enfranchise non western educational actors for theoretical knowledge production that addresses local needs. Knowledge Hierarchies in Transnational Education will be of key value to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of international education teacher education and globalisation.
