Sue Williamson:

Sue Williamson Mark Gevisser, 2015 Since South Africa's transition to democracy in 1994 Sue Williamson has continued to address social issues such as the AIDS epidemic through installations and artworks that combine photographic image video and text Her oeuvre reveals a deep appreciation of narrative but also a commitment to research and reporting she makes her artworks by telling history in the personal register through the eyes and words of those most deeply involved Sue Williamson's work is represented in many public collections including the Tate Modern and the Victoria and Albert Museum the MoMa the National Museum of African Art Smithsonian Institution just to name a few Her recent awards include a Visual Art Research fellowship from the Smithsonian Institution and a Creative Arts Fellowship at Bellagio Italy from the Rockefeller Foundation Sue Williamson, The Forum, 1900 The Justice of Visual Art Eliza Garnsey, 2020 Drawing on novel case studies this book provides the first substantive theoretical framework for understanding transitional justice and visual art Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 Women and Photography in Apartheid South Africa Marie Meyerding, 2025-04-29 Tracing the lives and works of five women in four case studies author Marie Meyerding examines the representation of women in the field of photography in South Africa in the second half of the twentieth century All of them are critically understudied with no existing scholarship dedicated exclusively to their photographic contributions Focusing on the representation of women on two different levels as agents behind the camera and as subjects in photographs it showcases women photographers portraying their female contemporaries and analyses to what extent they adhered to or subverted common forms of gender representation In recuperating their forgotten archives the book argues that none of these women are marginal figures but rather that each of them played a leading role in the field of photography in their own time The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography gender studies intersectionality and African studies Breaking the Silence Ellen Grünkemeier, 2013 South Africa is one of the countries in the world most affected by HIV AIDS and yet until recently the epidemic was barely visible in South African literature Much can be gained from approaching the South African epidemic through creative texts such as novels photographs films cartoons and murals because they produce and circulate meanings of HIV AIDS and its various facets such as its origin transmission routes and physical manifestations Other aspects explored are the denial of HIV AIDS its stigmatisation discriminatory practices modes of disclosure access to anti retroviral medication as well as the role of alternative treatment Creative texts which are open to different and possibly contradictory readings can serve as a starting point to increase the cultural visibility of the virus and to challenge dominant ideas about the epidemic The cultural constructions of HIV AIDS should be carefully examined because the meanings are pervasive and have very real consequences they play a powerful role both in determining which issues receive attention and in shaping public understanding of the virus She Who Imagines Laurie Cassidy, Maureen H. O'Connell, 2012-11-01 The idea and ideal of beauty has been used to oppress women of different ages body types skin color and physical ability The theoretical discussion of aesthetics has also been conditioned by these same dynamics of power and oppression In She Who Imagines a diverse set of scholars challenges the exclusion and false definitions while constructing capacious ideas that discover beauty in unexpected places In these essays the authors draw on a variety of arts media painting photography portraiture craftwork poetry and hip hop music thereby joining beauty to truth and in a richly defining way to the practice of justice In a variety of ways all the essays link women's definitions of beauty with experiences of suffering and hence with the yearning for justice All clearly prize resistance to degradation as an essential element of thought Sue Williamson Rory Bester, 2005 Webb Family of Bearwallow Ridge, 1983 George Webb married Nancy Knuckles daughter of John Knuckles 13 February 1795 in Botetourt County Virginia They had two children He married Caroline Ritchie widow of John Ritchie and they had one child He died in about 1821 in Tazewell County Virginia Descendants and relatives lived mainly in Virginia West Virginia and Ohio Dickinson Law Review, 1900 The Bulletin of the Caucus on Social Theory and Art Education, 1987 Africa Through the Eyes of Women Artists Betty LaDuke, 1991 Portraits of twelve artists from Africa and the Diaspora The Descendants of William Kellie of Scotland, 1994 William Kellie b ca 1700 was born in Galloway He married Margaret Kilpatrick and they were the parents of seven children One of his children was Robert Kellie Kelly 1734 1808 who was born in Kirkmadrine Scotland and married Mary Gibson They were the parents of four children He and his family immigrated to America before 1774 and settled in New York where he served in the American Revolution Their numerous descendants live throughout the United States Sue Williamson: There's Something I Must Tell You, 2026-03-03 Called a dynamic amazement by New York Times critic Holland Cotter Williamson confronts South Africa's legacy of slavery and apartheid through her incisive multimedia series Page by page this striking catalog of South African artist Sue Williamson's born 1941 major retrospective takes readers on a walk through 45 years of her work Her politically charged and deeply feminist work spans several mediums including drawing printmaking photography video and installation Sue Williamson, 2007 Leadership, 1987 Patrick Shockney and His Descendants Elizabeth Swank Frazier, Edward Leon Frazier, 1985 Civil Service Year Book, 1998 The Maynards of East Kentucky Roland Burns Maynard, 1979 Christopher Columbus Maynard fl 1773 1796 and his family moved from North Carolina to Floyd County Kentucky in 1785 Descendants lived in Kentucky Pennsylvania Virginia and elsewhere
