Post-9/11 Historical Fiction and Alternate History Fiction Pei-chen Liao, 2020-09-19 Drawing on theories of historiography memory and diaspora as well as from existing genre studies this book explores why contemporary writers are so fascinated with history Pei chen Liao considers how fiction contributes to the making and remaking of the transnational history of the U S by thinking beyond and before 9 11 investigating how the dynamics of memory as well as the emergent present influences readers reception of historical fiction and alternate history fiction and their interpretation of the past Set against the historical backdrop of WWII the Vietnam War and the War on Terror the novels under discussion tell Jewish Japanese white American African Muslim and Native Americans stories of trauma and survival As a means to transmit memories of past events these novels demonstrate how multidirectional memory can be not only collective but connective as exemplified by the echoes that post 9 11 readers hear between different histories of violence that the novels chronicle as well as between the past and the present

The World Hitler Never Made Gavriel D. Rosenfeld, 2005-05-23 A fascinating 2005 study of the place of alternate histories of Nazism within Western popular culture

Alternate History Kathleen Singles, 2013-10-14 While strictly speaking Alternate Histories are not Future Narratives their analysis can shed a clear light on why Future Narratives are so different from past narratives Trying to have it both ways most Alternate Histories subscribe to a conflicting set of beliefs concerning determinism and freedom of choice contingency and necessity For the very first time Alternate Histories are here discussed against the backdrop of their Other Future Narratives The volume contains in depth analyses of the classics of the genre such as Philip K Dick s The Man in the High Castle and Philip Roth s The Plot against America as well as less widely discussed manifestations of the genre such as Dieter K hn s N Christian Kracht s Ich werde hier sein im Sonnenschein und im Schatten and Quentin Tarantino s film Inglourious Basterds

Science Fiction and the Historical Novel Ian P. MacDonald, Kate Polak, 2024-09-16 If you woke to realize that you could rewrite your yesterday without knowing the kind of tomorrow it would grant you would you do it Are the authors of our destiny working with an outline or spit balling confusing plotlines Since the past changes possible futures to what alighting butterfly should we pay the most heed This book explores the liminal space between speculative fiction and the historical novel Staged as a transnational multicultural conversation it takes up a call originally made by Fredric Jameson in Archaeologies of the Future wherein he describes that flashpoint between speculative and historical genres as the symptom of a mutation in our relationship to historical time itself Drawing together postcolonial feminist cultural Indigenous and cognitive approaches Science Fiction and the Historical Novel asks what the past can offer a future oriented world and how the future can be imagined in relation to a past that seeks narratives of inevitability rather than possibility Engaged with the idea of the past as a model for the future authors in this volume probe the extent to which historical scripts delimit possibilities and how authors engaged with the practice of alternative pasts rewrite potentialities in the present
