Unconditional Surrender:

Unconditional Surrender of Germany United Nations, Allied Powers (1919- ), 1945      The Columbia Guide to Hiroshima and the Bomb Michael Kort, 2007 These primary source documents comprise the largest part of this volume They are organized into seven categories American civilian documents American military documents MAGIC diplomatic summaries Japanese government and military documents and diary entries Japanese surrender documents the United States Strategic Bombing Survey Summary Report and Interrogations of Japanese Officials and Statements of Japanese Officials on World War II compiled by the Military Intelligence Section of the United States Army BOOK JACKET      Before the Bomb John D. Chappell, 1997-12-01 Almost forgotten in the haze of events following Nagasaki and Hiroshima the summer of 1945 witnessed an intense public debate over how best to end the war against Japan Weary of fighting the American people were determined to defeat the imperial power that had so viciously attacked them in December 1941 but they were uncertain of the best means to accomplish this goal Certain of victory the inevitable triumph promised by Franklin Roosevelt immediately after Pearl Harbor Americans became increasingly concerned about the human cost of defeating Japan Particularly after the brutal Iwo Jima and Okinawa campaigns syndicated columnists newspaper editorialists radio commentators and others questioned the necessity of invasion A lengthy naval and aerial siege would have saved lives but might have protracted the war beyond the public's patience Advertisers filled the media with visions of postwar affluence even as the government was exhorting its citizens to remain dedicated to the war effort There was heated discussion as well about the morality of firebombing Japanese cities and of using poison gas and other agents of chemical warfare Chappell provides a balanced assessment of all these debates grounding his observations in a wealth of primary sources He also discusses the role of racism the demand for unconditional surrender and the government's reaction to public opinion in the decision to drop the atomic bomb Compelling and controversial this is the first work to examine the confusing and contradictory climate of the American home front in the months leading up to V J Day      Victory in War William C. Martel, 2006-12-25 For millennia policymakers and statesmen have grappled with questions about the concept of victory in war How long does it take to achieve victory and how do we know when victory is achieved And as highlighted by the wars against Afghanistan and Iraq is it possible to win a war and yet lose the peace The premise of this book is that we do not have a modern theory about victory and that in order to answer these questions we need one This book explores historical definitions of victory how victory has evolved and how it has been implemented in war It also subsequently develops the intellectual foundations of a modern pre theory of victory and discusses the military instruments necessary for victory in the twenty first century using case studies that include US military intervention in Panama Libya Persian Gulf War Bosnia Kosovo Afghanistan and Iraq      Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1952      On the Road to Total War Stig Förster, Jorg Nagler, 2002-08-22 On the Road to Total War attempts to trace the roots and development of total industrialised warfare a concept which terrorises citizens and soldiers alike Mass mobilisation of people and resources and the growth of nationalism led to this totalisation of war in nineteenth century industrialised nations In this collection of essays international scholars focus on the social political economic and cultural impact of the American Civil War and the German Wars of Unification Institute of Pacific Relations United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee to Investigate the Administration of the Internal Security Act and Other Internal Security Laws,1951 Investigates alleged communist control of the publications and international information exchange programs of the Institute of Pacific Relations Also investigates alleged communist attempts to influence U S Far East policy Includes discussion of Communist Party activities in Nazi Germany Army Talk ,1944 The First Battle William Jennings Bryan,1896 Institute of Pacific Relations United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1951 The Children's messenger [formerly The Sabbath school messenger]. ,1879 The Propaganda Warriors Clayton David Laurie,1996 A fascinating story Essential to an understanding of America s use of propaganda Warren F Kimball author of The Juggler Franklin Roosevelt as Wartime Statesman Lively and revealing There is much that is new and important in this book All students of the war as well as of intelligence will benefit from it Robin W Winks author of Cloak and Gown A must acquisition for anyone with any interest in espionage intelligence and propaganda Dennis Showalter author of Tannenburg Clash of Empires National Union Gleanings ,1896 Senate documents ,1887 South African Republic Great Britain. Colonial Office,1896 Warmaking and American Democracy Michael David Pearlman,1999 While war is most effectively waged as a united effort the United States has consistently waged military conflict without firm central direction Throughout our history observes Michael Pearlman the waging of war has been subject to continuous bargaining and compromise among competing governments and military factions What passes for strategy emerged from this process Christian Work ,1895 Yayın ,1963 Bernard Brodie and the Foundations of American Nuclear Strategy Barry Howard Steiner,1991 Steiner analyzes how and why Brodie s understanding of weapons of unparalleled explosive force led him to posit the need for revolutionary strategic thinking in broadminded analytic method and in the focus upon cities as nuclear targets He shows the tremendous effect Brodie s work had on the intellectual climate in which policy is determined particularly in his frequent combatting of conventional wisdom Parliamentary Debates ,1896
