Welcome The Outsider:

Welcoming the Stranger Patrick R. Keifert,1992 This book is an astute rethinking of theology and pastoral ministry that overcomes sentimental notions of hospitality

Welcoming the Outsider Geoffrey Plant,2009 Geoff Plant s homilies teach by surprise In each he first devotes time to offer his knowledge of the biblical aspect of the given reading from settings to scholarship Then he invites us to share his delight in something from his own discovery of our contemporary secular world which has made its mark from people to places In a deft conclusion he draws the two worlds together so we are suddenly clearly and unforgettably instructed in holy understanding Spiritual growth is the result These homilies will be welcomed by priests and Church workers students of Biblical Studies Bible Study groups and individuals wishing to enrich their own spiritual understanding I have called this collection of homilies Welcoming the Outsider thereby sounding a note that resonates throughout Luke s gospel and which is particularly evident in stories unique to Luke In Luke s gospel the final words that Jesus spoke from the cross to another human being were addressed to an outsider Today you will be with me in paradise Jesus died as he had lived welcoming the outsider From the Introduction
