Congress. House. Committee on Agriculture,1981      Tracker Alexis Wright,2025-09-02 A breathtaking monumental work of collective memoir from the master Alexis Wright How do you tell an impossible story one that is almost too big to contain in a single book In Tracker Alexis Wright tells the story of charismatic Aboriginal Australian leader Tracker Tilmouth who died in Darwin in 2015 at the age of 62 Taken from his family as a child and brought up in a mission on Croker Island Tracker worked tirelessly for Aboriginal self determination creating opportunities for land use and economic development in his many roles including Director of the Central Land Council of the Northern Territory Tracker was a visionary and a strategist renowned for his irreverent humour and his determination to tell things the way he saw them Having known him for many years Alexis Wright interviewed Tracker along with family friends colleagues and the politicians he influenced weaving their stories together in a manner reminiscent of Nobel Prize winner Svetlana Alexievich s Secondhand Time The book is as much a testament to the powerful role played by storytelling in contemporary Aboriginal life as it is to the legacy of an extraordinary man      Emotionally Absent Parents Zehra Aydin

Koçak,2026-01-24 This book aims to function as a mirror for traumatized individuals in order to transform the overwhelming residue of the traumatized past into a healing journey thereby literature can be used as a reflective tool to lead traumatized individuals to witness experience relive and possibly grow out of their own childhood traumas provided that they empathize with the literary child characters Billy in A Kestrel for a Knave Jack in The Cement Garden and Frank in Angela s Ashes While experiencing traumatic experiences adult individuals might lose their ability to articulate what has happened or they might encounter a sense of emotional paralysis through their subconscious in the form of nightmares or flashbacks How does empathizing with children in literature help traumatized adults readers to develop defence mechanisms specific to their circumstances and unique qualities for each individual Though the focal point of this book sounds heartbreaking it actually mirrors the hidden real lives of the adult world who hide behind the positive image of the millennium We owe it to our traumatized child self to provide necessary equipment to allow him her to acknowledge out loud the repressed past because the child figure in literature shows us who we are

"The Gift" by H.D. H.D.,2021-10-05 In this complete unabridged edition of H D s visionary memoir The Gift Jane Augustine makes available for the first time the text as H D wrote it and intended it to be read including H D s coda to the book her Notes never before published in its entirety Written in London during the blitz of World War II The Gift re creates the peaceful childhood of Hilda Doolittle in Bethlehem Pennsylvania where she was born in 1886 As an antidote to war s destructiveness H D invokes the mystical Moravian heritage of her mother s family to convey an ideal world peace and salvation that would come through the spiritual power of women a power that also endowed her with the gift of her own art The Gift is key to intertextual studies of H D s wartime oeuvre and to an understanding of the religious and gender concerns pervading her later work especially the women centered poems Trilogy and Helen in Egypt Augustine s introduction and annotations based on extensive research in Moravian archives provide a biographical and historical context to make this the definitive edition of The Gift essential to students and scholars of H D modernism and feminist literature

Farms, Factories, and Families Anthony V. Riccio,2014-05-08 Often treated as background figures throughout their history Italian women of the lower and working classes have always struggled and toiled alongside men and this did not change following emigration to America Through numerous oral history narratives Farms Factories and Families documents the rich history of Italian American working women in Connecticut As farming women they could keep up with any man As entrepreneurs they started successful businesses They joined men on production lines in Connecticut s factories and sweatshops and through the strength of the neighborhood networks they created they played a crucial role in union organizing Empowered as foreladies union officials and shop stewards they saved money for future generations of Italian American women to attend college and achieve dreams they themselves could never realize The book opens with the voices of elderly Italian American women who reconstruct daily life in Italy s southern regions at the turn of the twentieth century Raised to be caretakers and nurturers of families these women lived by the culturally claustrophobic dictates of a patriarchal society that offered them few choices The storytellers of Farms Factories and Families reveal the trajectories of immigrant women who arrived in Connecticut with more than dowries in their steam trunks the ability to face adversity with quiet inner strength the stamina to work tirelessly from dawn to dusk the skill to manage the family economy and adherence to moral principles rooted in the southern Italian code of behavior Second and third generation Italian American women who attended college and achieved professional careers on the wings of their Italian born mothers and grandmothers have not forgotten their legacy and though Italian American immigrant women lived by a script they did not write Farms Factories and Families gives them the opportunity to tell their own stories in their own words
