Literary Studies and Human Flourishing James F. English, Heather Love, 2023 The Humanities and Human Flourishing series publishes edited volumes that explore the role of human flourishing in the central disciplines of the humanities and whether and how the humanities can increase human happiness The contributors to this volume of essays investigate the question what do literary scholars contribute to social scientific research on human happiness and flourishing Of all humanities disciplines none is more resistant to the program of positive psychology or the prevailing discourse of human flourishing than literary studies The approach taken in this volume of essays is neither to gloss over that antagonism nor to launch a series of blasts against positive psychology and the happiness industry Rather the contributors reflect on how their literary research work to which they are personally committed might become part of an interdisciplinary conversation about human flourishing The contributors areas of research are wide ranging covering literary aesthetics book history digital humanities and reader reception as well as the important inter disciplines of gender and sexuality studies disability studies and black studies fields in which issues of stigma and exclusion are paramount and which have critiqued the discourse of human flourishing for its failure to grapple with structural inequality and human difference Literary scholars are drawn more readily to the problematic than to the decidable but by dwelling on the trouble spots in a field of inquiry still largely confined to the sciences Literary Studies and Human Flourishing provides the groundwork for new and more productive forms of interdisciplinary collaboration and exchange

The Literary Werewolf Charlotte F. Otten,2002-10-01 Here is a werewolf anthology that uncovers new terrain Its stories span centuries Its storytellers from Stephen King to Saki de Maupassant to Kipling Seabury Quinn to Ovid are eclectic Its premise delves deeper into its subject than previous often sensational collections The Literary Werewolf is arranged into ten story groups based on like human needs for animal transformation Within its pages waits the werewolf who is Erotic Rapacious Supernatural Victimized Avenging Guilty Unabsolved and Voluntary Each cluster of tales provides unique insights into varied aspects of the human psyche by examining psychological physical moral spiritual medical supernatural and philosophical facets of human werewolf transmut11tion Thus the author sheds spellbinding light on murky impulses lurking beneath the surface of human consciousness
