Understanding Public Debates Jens Martin Gurr, 2024-06-20 By historicizing and contextualizing them through readings of carefully selected literary texts literary studies can contribute to understanding and rationalizing key debates waged in many pluralist societies today whether on different conceptions of liberty identity politics historical commemoration challenges of globalization or

responses to climate change Understanding Public Debates presents case studies including Milton's Paradise Lost P B Shelley's 1820 Reform essay Philip Roth's The Human Stain the songwriting of Neil Young and Edward Young's 1720s Sea Odes recent climate fiction as well as non literary conflict narratives Rather than mining texts for arguments for or against certain positions this book is interested in how texts stage these debates by means of multiple perspectives narrative situations or ambiguities By suggesting how educators might use literary texts as conversation starters for more rational debates the volume also contributes to Public Literary Studies Three important fields are here brought together 1 the study of societal debates and conflicts and the ways in which they challenge pluralist societies 2 explorations of the societal functions of literature and of non literary narratives and 3 discussions of the role and functions of literary studies The book ends with ten crisp theses on how literary studies can contribute to understanding and rationalizing such conflictive debates

Anthropocene Realism John Thieme, 2025-03-20 Examining the challenges faced by novelists writing realist fiction in the age of climate change this open access book considers the various ways in which contemporary writers have evolved new and transformed modes of realism to grapple with the problems of living on an endangered planet Focusing on fiction set in the long present a term used to cover the actual present the near future and an historic past that interacts with the present Thieme argues that long present realism negates the possibility of deferring engagement with the climate crisis on the grounds that it is a future threat Thieme examines work by twelve novelists Margaret Atwood James Bradley Amitav Ghosh Helon Habila Liz Jensen Barbara Kingsolver Ian McEwan Richard Powers Annie Proulx Indra Sinha Antii Tuomainen and Wu Ming Yi He provides important new insights into the methods these writers use to convey the urgency of the climate crisis and how their work can inform our understandings of the Anthropocene activity that endangers life on Earth The ebook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 4.0 licence on bloomsburycollections.com Open access was funded by Knowledge Unlatched
