Retelling Project

Name: _____

Rewriting a Fairy Tale

Planning Sheet

Before you start an original writing, you'll need to brainstorm ideas and create a plan.

1 Which fairy tale will you be retelling?

2 From whose point-of-view will you be writing (who's the original villain)?

3 What information is incredibly important to writing a story forward. Think about the characters.

4 What information will you add or remove about this character to give a new voice to the story?

5 How do you already know about this character?

6 How might you change the story?

Demonstrating the aesthetic, cultural, political, and intellectual diversity of children's literature across the globe, The Routledge Companion to International Children's Literature is the first volume of its kind to focus on the undervisited regions of the world. With particular focus on Asia, Africa, and Latin America, the collection raises awareness of children's literature and related media as they exist in large regions of the world to which mainstream European and North American scholarship pays very little attention. Sections cover Concepts and theories, Historical contexts and national identity, Cultural forms and children's texts, Traditional story and adaptation, Picture books across the majority world, Trends in children's and young adult literatures. Exposition of the literary, cultural, and historical contexts in which children's literature is produced, together with an exploration of intersections between these literatures and more extensively researched areas, will enhance access and understanding for a large range of international readers.
