The Houngan:

Medicine and Morality in Haiti Paul Brodwin, 1996-09-13 Morality and medicine are inextricably intertwined in rural Haiti and both are shaped by the different local religious traditions Christian and Vodoun as well as by biomedical and folk medical practices When people fall ill they seek treatment not only from Western doctors but also from herbalists religious healers and midwives Dr Brodwin examines the situational logic the pragmatic decisions that guide people in making choices when they are faced with illness He also explains the moral issues that arise in a society where suffering is associated with guilt but where different sometimes conflicting ethical systems coexist Moreover he shows how in the crisis of illness people rework religious identities and are forced to address fundamental social and political problems Zombie Seed and the Butterfly Blues R.P. Clair, 2013-09-03 Professor Delta Quinn teams with investigative reporter Caleb Barthes to unravel the mystery of the zombie seed the genetically modified follow up to the terminator seed This fact based fiction is an academic novel that relies on fast paced action as well as theoretical insights Using the cultural icon of the zombie to address work alienation and contemporary apathy is perfect for the purposes of having the reader examine corporate greed in a global world The cast of characters brings this global aspect to life In the backdrop of the novel a history of the zombie unfolds a history of the violence that Haiti and African diaspora have suffered Yet it is Delta s research into narratives of partner abuse that lead her to grapple with her own tragic past and take brave steps toward ending the abuse of others This social justice book is based on award winning research in rhetorical ethnography and is being assigned for courses in rhetoric ethnography narrative organizational communication and diversity but would fit with others e g ethics interpersonal public relations journalism sociology philosophy where examining the individual s role in the life world is not only promoted but expected If the novel doesn t do it then the facts found at the end of the book should wake up any remaining zombies Robin Patric Clair is a Full Professor Diversity Fellow and a Fellow to the Center of Creative Endeavors at Purdue University She has won research awards in rhetoric narrative ethnography and organizational communication including two Outstanding Book of the Year awards two Best Research Article of the Year awards the Golden Anniversary Award and multiple Top Paper Awards for her research Essays on and around Dancing Riitta Parvia, 2024-03-21 Essays on and around Dancing centers on dance education clinical dance therapy and dance ritual Caribbean Narrative O.
