Music Rudolf Steiner, 2016-07-22 Our neurosensory system is inwardly configured music and we experience music as an artistic quality to the degree that a piece of music is in tune with the mystery of our own musical structure Rudolf Steiner What is music Rudolf Steiner regards the essence of music as something spiritual inaudible to the senses The world of tones borne on the vibrations of air is not the essential element The true nature of music the spiritual element in music he says is found between the tones lies in the intervals as an inaudible quality Rudolf Steiner spoke repeatedly about music as something inherent both in the cosmos and the human being It played an important role in many forms of ritual and worship and people once perceived a link between music and the world of stars which was seen as the dwelling place of the gods Nowadays our view of music is divorced from such religious outlooks but research repeatedly demonstrates the profound effect it continues to have on us In this unique anthology of texts compiled with a commentary and notes by Michael Kurtz Steiner describes the realm of the spiritually resonating harmonies of the spheres and our intrinsic connection to this cosmic music He also explores the phenomenon of musical listening and experience as well as Goethe's approach to music
