Universal Self Consciousness:

Hegel on the Proofs and Personhood of God Robert R. Williams, 2017 Hegel's analysis of his culture identifies nihilistic tendencies in modernity i.e. the death of God and end of philosophy Philosophy and religion have both become hollowed out to such an extent that traditional disputes between faith and reason become impossible because neither any longer possesses any content about which there could be any dispute this is nihilism Hegel responds to this situation with a renewal of the ontological argument Logic and ontotheology which takes the form of philosophical trinitarianism Hegel on the Proofs and Personhood of God examines Hegel's recasting of the theological proofs as the elevation of spirit to God and defense of their content against the criticisms of Kant and Jacobi It also considers the issue of divine personhood in the Logic and Philosophy of Religion This issue reflects Hegel's antiformalism that seeks to win back determinate content for truth Logic and the concept of God While the personhood of God was the issue that divided the Hegelian school into left wing and right wing factions both sides fail as interpretations The center Hegelian view is both virtually unknown and the most faithful to Hegel's project What ties the two parts of the book together Hegel's philosophical trinitarianism or identity as unity in and through difference Logic and his theological trinitarianism or incarnation trinity reconciliation and community Philosophy of Religion is Hegel's Logic of the Concept Hegel's metaphysical view of personhood is identified with the singularity Einzelheit of the concept This includes as its speculative nucleus the concept of the true infinite the unity in difference of infinite finite thought and being divine human unity incarnation and trinity God as spirit in his community
