Unreal Estate Short Stories:

Unreal Estate Brian Swann,1982 Unreal Estate Lyn Muir,1993 Contains 67 amusing anecdotes involving real estate agents mostly set in Perth in the 1990s Some were submitted to short story competitions arranged with the Real Estate Institutes in Western Australia and Tasmania others were sent to Muir following publication of her first book Dogs and Dining Tables about the real estate industry in a mining town in the 1970s Features cartoon style illustrations Unreal Estate - The Men who Sold the Moon , Realms of Exile Domnica Radulescu,2002-01-01 Realms of Exile brings together authors writing on diverse themes of Eastern European exile The book defines the experiential and linguistic peculiarities of exiled people who share similar cultural geographical and mythological backgrounds and who have suffered under totalitarian rule The contributions discuss a variety of media from the soulful melodies of the Russian gypsies to the delicate sensuousness of Kieslowski s films as the authors treat some of the most crucial issues of our times such as political dissent and resistance the fractured self alienation and migr consciousness Realms of Exile is interdisciplinary and cross cultural scholarship at its best casting new light on the many nuances and variations of many of the cultures and ethnic groups of Eastern Europeans The Oxford Handbook of Nineteenth-Century American Literature Russ Castronovo,2014-02

The Oxford Handbook of Nineteenth Century American Literature will offer a cutting edge assessment of the period s literature offering readers practical insights and proactive strategies for exploring novels poems and other literary creations

Black and Brown Planets Isiah Lavender III,2014-09-25 Black and Brown Planets embarks on a timely exploration of the American obsession with color in its look at the sometimes contrary intersections of politics and race in science fiction The contributors including De Witt D Kilgore Edward James Lisa Yaszek and Marleen S Barr among others explore science fiction worlds of possibility literature television and film lifting blacks Latin Americans and indigenous peoples out from the background of this historically white genre This collection considers the role of race and ethnicity in our visions of the future The first section emphasizes the political elements of black identity portrayed in science fiction from black America to the vast reaches of interstellar space framed by racial history In the next section analysis of indigenous science fiction addresses the effects of colonization helps discard the emotional and psychological baggage carried from its impact and recovers ancestral traditions in order to adapt in a post Native apocalyptic world Likewise this section explores the affinity between science fiction and subjectivity in Latin American cultures from the role of science and industrialization to the effects of being in and moving between two cultures By infusing more color in this otherwise monochrome genre Black and Brown Planets imagines alternate racial galaxies with viable political futures in which people of color determine human destiny The Whole Literature Catalogue Mary Clark,1983 Who Owns the Moon? Virgiliu Pop,2008-11-16 This work investigates the permissibility and viability of property rights on the lestial bodies particularly the extraterrestrial aspects of land and mineral resources ownership In lay terms it aims to nd an answer to the question Who owns the Moon The rst chapter critically analyses and dismantles with legal arguments the issue of sale of extraterrestrial real estate after having perused some of the trivial claims of celestial bodies ownership The only consequence these claims have on the plane of space law is to highlight the need for a better regulation of extraterrestrial landed property rights Next the book addresses the apparent silence of the law in the field of extraterrestrial landed property scrutinizing whether the factual situation on the extraterrestrial realms calls for legal regulations The sources of law are examined in their dual dimension that is the facts that have caused and shaped the law of extraterrestrial real estate and the norms which express this law It is found that the norms and rules regarding property rights in the celestial realms are rather limited failing to define basic concepts such as celestial body

Short stories [formerly Magazine of short stories], 1894 Unreal Estate Stefani Shock, 2016-09-21 Beyond the day to day technique of representing buyers and sellers is the mindset of the broker I countlessly hear brokers tell me they lack confidence and self esteem How can they be a success when their confidence is hanging in the balance This book tells the story of a self made broker who tackled those same issues I rose up through the real estate trenches in NYC lost it all in the 2008 market crash only to rebound triple my income and eventually sell luxury homes in the Bahamas The shift that occurred was one that involved personal development following the guidance of others changing my sales techniques and much more All of the lessons that propelled me to the next level are included in this book Enjoy reading it as much as I did living it

StoryQuarterly, 1981 The Speaker, the Liberal Review, 1898 Unreal Estate Stefan Gagne, 2015-01-22 Mallory Heisenberg an ordinary farm boy living an ordinary life in an ordinary world generated by a perfectly ordinary apparatus that constructs physical reality out of nothingness Absolutely ordinary and completely unremarkable in any way shape or form until a house falls on his head and things start to get uncomfortably exciting Welcome to the multiverse of Unreal Estate where a network of artificially crafted worlds blends into a congealed wad of corporate wrongdoing popular culture software ethics and criminal activity Sorting through this mess for the right price is Mirai Consulting a troubleshooting service operating out of a surprisingly mobile home that shifts between worlds at the press of a button Taken from the bits and bytes of the semipopular 2003 web novel by Stefan Gagne available for the first time in print as a physical object you can hold in your hands which presumably exists Assuming you exist Which may not be a safe assumption Reality may not get out of beta today The Speaker, 1898 The House of Make-Believe Dorothy G. Singer, 1990-11 In the most thorough attempt to cover all aspects of children's make believe Dorothy and Jerome Singer examine how imaginative play begins and develops from the infant's first smiles to the toddler's engagement in social pretend play They provide intriguing examples and research evidence on the young child's invocation of imaginary friends the adolescent's daring rule governed games and the adult's private imagery and inner thought In chapters that will be important to parents and policymakers the authors discuss television and the imagination the healing function of play and the effects of playfulness and creativity throughout the life span The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1975 The Best
