Walking Shadows:

Walking Shadows Ib Johansen, 2015-08-25 Walking Shadows focuses on the American fantastic and the American grotesque attempting in this manner for the first time to establish an overview of and a theoretical approach to two literary modes that have often been regarded as essential to an understanding of the American cultural canon The central importance of these two literary forms has been pointed out earlier by important theorists such as Stanley Cavell David Reynolds and William Van O Connor A number of literary works from the beginning of the nineteenth to the end of the twentieth centuries are taken up in order to illustrate the inherent links or family resemblances between the two modes with special reference to the way in which a Bakhtinian reading may facilitate our appreciation of their status within the canon These excursions into the House of Fantastic and Grotesque Fiction may be of interest not only to hardcore aficionados but also to philosophically minded readers in general in particular perhaps to those who have paid acute attention to debates on late twentieth and early twenty first century post structuralism and deconstruction where the classic positions of Foucault Derrida et al still appear to be relevant Walking Shadows, Sea Tales and Others Alfred Noyes, 2022-07-15 Excerpt The position of a light house keeper in a sea infested by submarines is a peculiar one but Peter Ramsay keeper of the Hatchets Light had reasons for feeling that his lonely tower six miles from the mainland was the happiest habitation in the world At five o'clock on a gusty October afternoon of the year 1916 Peter had just finished his tea and settled down with a pipe and the last number of the British Weekly for five minutes reading before he turned to the secret of his happiness again Precisely at this moment the Commander of the U 99 three miles away to the north after making sure through his periscope that there were no patrol boats in the vicinity rose to the surface and began to look for the Hatchets He too had reasons for wishing to get inside the light house if only for half an hour It was possible only by trickery but he thought it might be done under cover of darkness and he was about to reconnoiter When he first emerged he had some difficulty in descrying his goal across that confused sea His eye was guided by a patch of foam larger than the ordinary run of white caps and glittering in the evening sun like a black thorn blossom As the sky brightened behind it he saw rising upright like the single slim pistil of those rough white petals the faint shaft of the light house itself The Walking Shadows 3-Book Bundle Brenden Carlson, 2023-03-07 Book 1 Night Call In a very different 1933 self styled detective Elias Roche and his robot partner Allen immerse themselves in the criminal underworld to find the killer and hopefully prevent war on New York's streets when a murder occurs that not only threatens both the police and the mafia but appears connected to Roche's past Book 2 Midnight Dodging the mafia the cops and the FBI Elias Roche and Allen must find a killer with both a time limit and a looming war hanging over their heads Book 3 Dark All Day With the threat of Automatic extinction on the line proving the innocence of Charles an Automatic charged with murder is one of the most important cases Roche and Allen will ever undertake Walking with Shadows Ben Myers, 2002 Ben Myers play Walking with Shadows is one of several plays he wrote whilst at the renowned Watermill
