

Essays on Cultural Renewal

KENNETH WHITE

THE WANDERER and his CHARTS

Following on from On Scottish Ground, this book moves further into White's mental cartography. A first part, 'The Intellectual Nomad', lays out the practice of intellectual nomadism, based on White's explorations and researches from culture to culture across the world. A second part, 'Place and Space', gathers together essays written in the environment of a mountain and frontier country (the Pyrenees), and in a coastal area (North Brittany): it concerns what White calls 'geopoetics', a theory that attempts to get back into the root of culture and start again afresh. In the third part, 'A Cultural Project', White turns his attention specifically to Scotland with propositions for radical cultural renewal. In White's hands, the essay is no mere literary plaything or impressionistic rambling, it is a vehicle of fast cogent thinking. The sheer scope of the information and the clarity of the arguments are hard to find anywhere else.

An intellectual nomad of genius.
THE SCOTSMAN

The work of Kenneth White, that inspirational cultural thinker, is an astonishingly exciting challenge to the way we think about the world.
THE HERALD

White's work on nomadism is like a vast map marked with signposts that indicate paths of active thought.
LA QUINZAINE LITTÉRAIRE, PARIS

White's polymorphous investigation is out to de-compartmentalize thought and create new cultural space.
L'HEBDO, GENEVA
