A photograph of a wedding reception table. The table is covered with a white tablecloth and is set with various items. In the foreground, there are several floral centerpieces. One is a large, round, silver vase filled with pink and red roses. Another is a smaller, round, silver vase with pink and red roses. There are also several glassware items, including wine glasses and water glasses, some of which are partially filled. The background shows a blurred view of a wedding reception area with white chairs and tables.
