Transforming Cities Contested Governance And New Spatial Divisions:

Transforming Cities Nick Jewson, Susanne Macgregor, 2018-05-11 Transforming Cities examines the profound changes that have characterised cities of the advanced capitalist societies in the final decades of the twentieth century It analyses ways in which relationships of contest conflict and co operation are realised in and through the social and spatial forms of contemporary urban life This book focuses on the impact of economic restructuring and changing forms of urban deprivation and social exclusion It contends that these processes are creating new patterns of social division and new forms of regulation and control

Cities and Consumption Mark Jayne, 2005-12-09 Cities and Consumption investigates the mutual and dynamic relationship between urban development and consumption how are cities moulded by consumption how is consumption moulded by cities

The Enterprising City Centre Gwyndaf Williams, 2003-11-06 The Enterprising City Centre reveals exemplars of local partnership working the development and delivery of realistic implementation plans and the range of instruments available to create both an improved quality to the urban environment and enhanced commercial and cultural competitiveness of our major city centres That this was largely delivered in Manchester within a five year period of intensive development and renewal activity amply demonstrates the value of such experience for wider dissemination

Terrorism, Risk and the Global City Jon Coaffee, 2016-03-16 First published in 2003 this account of the anti terrorist measures of London s financial district and the changes in urban security after 9 11 has been revised to take into account developments in counter terrorist security and management particularly after the terrorist attack in London on July 7th 2005 It makes a valuable addition to the current debate on terrorism and the new security challenges facing Western nations Drawing on the post 9 11 academic and policy literature on how terrorism is reshaping the contemporary city this book explores the changing nature of the terrorist threat against global cities in terms of tactics and targeting and the challenge of developing city wide managerial measures and strategies Also addressed is the way in which London is leading the way in developing best practice in counter terrorist design and management and how such practice is being internationalized

British Urban Policy Rob Imrie, Huw Thomas, 1999-06-22 This updated edition of British Urban Policy and the Urban Development Corporations provides a comprehensive account of the policies programmes and effects of one of the most controversial urban policy programmes ever brought to bear upon British cities The authors place the policies and practices of the urban development corporations UDCs in the wider sociopolitical context of evolving urban policy present case studies of eight UDCs and explore the legacies of the UDCs and the evolving framework for urban policy into the millennium
