Learning and Teaching Genre Aviva Freedman, Peter Medway, 1994

This collection examines academic genres types of writing produced by students in secondary school and college from the perspective of genre as social action Such a perspective expands the understanding of what students do when they learn new school genres of what teachers and institutions do to enhance and constrain such learning and of what all this signifies for conceptions of writing pedagogy The book begins with an overview of the reconception of genre study The essays that follow have an interest in genre particularly those that appear in educational settings as instances of either student reading or writing Common motifs recur throughout questions are raised concerning learning and teaching new genres the ideological power of genres read and written and the power of the teacher curriculum planner or student to invent new genres or to resist and subvert those that exist Throughout the contributors give detailed accounts of successful classroom practices Learning and Teaching Genre brings recent developments in research and thinking about written genres to the attention of high school and college teachers and illustrates how that work can effectively inform classroom practice The Rhetoric and Ideology of Genre Richard M. Coe, Lorelei Lingard, Tatiana Teslenko, 2002 This book takes up issues of current concern in composition studies sociolinguistics and ESL issues concerning academic literacy critical literacy expressive versus cognitive approaches to the teaching of writing and the like It does so in a practical experiential way drawing on events in classrooms in universities in South Africa and the United States The contrast between the South African context and the American as well as their surprising parallels highlight certain questions concerning the teaching of literacy in a dramatic way so that theory and practice are brought together In contrast to writing programs that follow a textbook or a planned sequence of study the authors describe a narrative pedagogy that encourages students to find a direction and choose activities suggested by their own concerns and ongoing lives Publisher Teaching Writing Gail E. Tompkins, 2008 Accessible and reader friendly this is the definitive book on teaching writing to children in grades K 8 the only title on the market to thoroughly address both the process and the product of writing Covers strategies for teaching prewriting drafting revising editing and publishing through writing workshops literature focus units and thematic units techniques for helping children develop ideas organize writing choose vocabulary apply stylistic devices and correct mechanical errors and five levels of scaffolded composition instruction modeled shared interactive guided and independent writing Addressing Process and Product NEW A Writing Workshop CD now included in every copy of the book gives you specific insight into classroom teaching in a workshop model illustrating both the writing process and product Meeting Individual Student Needs NEW How to Address Struggling Writers Problems this step by step analysis explains what issues cause writers to struggle provides clear examples of the problem and clarifies the steps to take to help writers overcome their obstacles Planning for Accountability NEW Preparing for Writing Tests this new feature will help you prepare students for high stakes testing by clearly defining each type of writing providing prompts to generate a writing sample and outlining possible pitfalls writers may face when writing in this specific genre Explicit Writing Instruction in Higher Educational Contexts Eunsook Shim, 2005 Genre-based Automated Writing Evaluation for L2 Research Writing E. Cotos, 2014-09-02 Research writing and teaching is a great challenge for novice scholars especially L2 writers This book presents a compelling and much needed automated writing evaluation AWE reinforcement to L2 research writing pedagogy Journal of Developmental Education, 2017 Frontiers in Educational Psychology Russell Waugh, 2005 It could be argued that one area that has produced some useful advances in educational psychology amongst others has been the use of better measurement of variables Two aspects of this better measurement stand out One involves the use of Rasch Measurement Models and the second involves developments in computer technology Rasch measurement is relatively new It was first worked out mathematically by George Rasch in the 1950s and published in 1960 Its use and development have been steadily growing and Rasch measurement is now on the point of producing a minor revolution in fields like educational psychology Rasch measurement makes a striking advance on True Score Test Theory in a number of ways What really brought the Rasch measurement revolution into focus were the advances in computer technology This book contains many papers that use linear measures of variables Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2009 Profession ,2005 Traditions and Innovations Manuel Brito,Juan Ignacio Oliva,2004 WHAT DOES THE GMAT ANALYTICAL WRITING ASSESSMENT BRING TO MANAGEMENT EDUCATION AND COMMUNICATION? WORKING PAPER #9407-19 PRISCILLA S. ROGERS & JONE RYMER,1994 Controversies in Second Language Writing Christine Pearson Casanave,2004 Controversies in Second Language Writing is not a how to book but one that focuses on how teachers in L2 writing can be helped to make reasoned decisions by understanding some of the key issues and conflicting opinions about L2 writing research and pedagogy This book will assist teachers in making informed decisions about teaching writing in the ESL classroom To counteract some of the debates Casanave explores the different sides of the arguments and provides examples of how other teachers have dealt with these issues The book presents novice and seasoned teachers with thought provoking issues and questions to consider when determining and reflecting on their own teaching strategies and criteria Topics discussed include contrastive rhetoric product vs process fluency and accuracy assessment of student work audience plagiarism politics and ideology College Writing and Beyond Anne Beaufort,2007-02-25 Publisher description PROFESSION 2005 ,2004-01-01 Genre Across The Curriculum Anne Herrington,Charles Moran,2005-02-24 Genre across the Curriculum will function as a good textbook one not for the student but for the teacher and one with an eye on the context of writing Here you will find models of practice descriptions written by teachers who have integrated the teaching of genre into their pedagogy in ways that both support and empower the student writer While authors here look at courses across disciplines and across a range of genres they are similar in presenting genre as situated within specific classrooms disciplines and institutions Their assignments embody the pedagogy of a particular teacher and student responses here embody students prior experiences with writing In each chapter the authors define a particular genre define the learning goals implicit in assigning that genre explain how they help their students work through the assignment and finally discuss how they evaluate the writing their students do in response to their teaching

The Top Books of the Year Write As An Expert Explicit Teaching Of Genres The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Write As An Expert Explicit Teaching Of Genres : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Write As An Expert Explicit Teaching Of Genres : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
