Wise Old Goose:

Goose Sense Akua A. Fayette, 2022-01-21 Goose Sense By Akua A Fayette Goose Sense is an educational tool for adults and children to learn about history culture and family as seen through the eyes of geese The book centers around how children live through innocence and joy until they reach the age when life begins to present itself with negative and positive situations Through powerful storytelling readers can analyze how they feel about their friends family and adult role models From this story Fayette hopes readers take away the need for unity and compassion and to treat people the way you want to be treated The most important thing to remember is to let love reflect back on all relationships The ending phrase of all the stories is If only people had the sense of a goose

It's All Connected Pauline Hopkins, 2023-01-03 Feminists have long known that it s all connected The stories the families the country the River In this anthology poets and short story writers create worlds with words This book includes stories that draw on mythic traditions rewritten for our time There are thieves grandmothers teenagers breaking out dark caves to explore and real estate to sell there are mysteries from the grave experiments that go wrong road trips a circus an opera families that break and families that hold together there are birds and animals and babies and there is the pandemic There is stillness and movement closeness and distance This eclectic range of authors brings their unique perspectives to storytelling as they each grapple to understand the past and meet the challenges ahead daring to share their joy and pain their fear and anger their hopes and disappointments These are women who dare to remember to claim their own stories and to wonder what may have been barn gate sign tomb squares flash by circles too the sun sadly buried a badly hung moon how I love the geometry of silence sometimes I stop to swig down a sight or lap at a wound or forget Suburu by Jordie Albiston The echo of these words is like a prose of rain Falling in great blasts of wind or in a drizzle of depression Which words do we want The ones that mean something Or a fabrication of reality Ulyssea by Susan Hawthorne All the stories I can think of turn out to be full of traps for the unsuspecting Keep Telling by Marion Molteno Memory s a burden forgetting even more so Lost Bird by Merlinda Bobis Contributors include Usha Akella Jordie Albiston Merlinda Bobis Angela Costi Mary Goslett Susan Hawthorne Sandy Jeffs Renate Klein Carol Lefevre Lizz Murphy Suniti Namjoshi Fiona Place Lucy Sussex Patricia Sykes Aviva Xue and more

Cross-cultural Communication and Aging in the United States Hana Noor Al-Deen, 2013-10-18 Recently the communication discipline has devoted increasing energy toward the study of aging yet most of the research has insufficiently addressed a crucial factor in communicative relationships culture Meanwhile cross cultural intercultural communication has not adequately addressed the aging process Combining three powerful elements communication aging and culture all of which have an increasingly profound impact on today s multicultural society this book focuses on older Americans in various communicative contexts within the framework of their cultures Composed of original research by experts in their respective fields the book combines communication aging and culture for a unique examination of those elements in American society Section 1 deals with perspectives in cross cultural communication and aging These perspectives both illustrate the issues that greatly affect the lives of our elders and suggest ways to improve their status Section 2 showcases three American cultures Hawaiian Arab and Mormon illustrate how language attitudes and mentoring can serve as the links for maintaining cross generational continuity in multicultural society Section 3 demonstrates that many American organizations frequently contribute to the hardships that both internal elder customers employees and external elder customers residents and patients must endure Section 4 incorporates popular culture and aging It presents the role of selective popular media in portraying our elders Because Americans rely heavily on the media their mediated perceptions can have a profound impact on their attitudes toward the older population Designed as a reader or supplementary text for college students in communication gerontology anthropology sociology and other related fields this text can also be used by professionals in gerontological service areas by libraries and as a personal reference It offers extensive appendices figures and tables for additional reference The Fall of the Indigo Jackal McComas Taylor,2008-06-05 Contemporary critical theory is brought to the consideration of caste in the Pancatantra one of the best known cycles of Indian tales Herald and Presbyter ,1899
