Williams and Humphrey Price including a Victorian era document which appears to have been altered to try to implicate their suspect Wolf Vanderlinden explores whether Inspector Walter Andrews of Scotland Yard really did go to America to chase Dr Francis Tumblety in connection with the Whitechapel murders or if he was actually there to try to collect evidence for the Parnell Commission which was trying link Irish leader Charles Parnell with terrorists Robert Clack follows with a comprehensive look into the 1901 murder of prostitute Mary Ann Austin in the same lodging house that Ripper victim Annie Chapman was kicked out of 13 years earlier this essay includes copious police reports inquest testimony a number of period illustrations and a suspect who may be linked to the earlier killings Don Souden then debunks a number of tall tales that grew up around the case including the ideas that victim Mary Kelly had a son living with her and that Catherine Eddowes knew who the Ripper was Bernard Brown comes next with a short piece on a man called Inspector Death who worked in the East End Andrew J Spallek closes the main section by providing readers with directions on finding the burial sites of Jack the Ripper s victims In addition there is a look at some other possible victims of the killer coverage of the 2006 Ripper conference book reviews news briefs and more Ripper Notes is a nonfiction anthology series covering all aspects of the Jack the Ripper case Victorian Women, Unwed Mothers and the London Foundling Hospital Jessica A.

Sheetz-Nguyen,2012-05-10 This volume seeks to address the questions of poverty charity and public welfare taking the nineteenth century London Foundling Hospital as its focus It delineates the social rules that constructed the gendered world of the Victorian age and uses respectability as a factor for analysis the women who successfully petitioned the Foundling Hospital for admission of their infants were not East End prostitutes but rather unmarried women often domestic servants determined to maintain social respectability The administrators of the Foundling Hospital reviewed over two hundred petitions annually deliberated on about one hundred cases and accepted not more than 25 per cent of all cases Using primary material from the Foundling Hospital s extensive archives this study moves methodically from the broad social and geographical context of London and the Foundling Hospital itself to the micro historical case data of individual mothers and infants Illustrated leaflets Illustrated leaflets,1884 The Medical circular [afterw.] The London medical press & circular [afterw.] The Medical press & circular ,1873 All the Year Round Charles Dickens,1868 The Coming Day ,1895 British Medical Journal ,1876 The Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament,1894 The Workhouse

Norman Longmate,2003 The British workhouse is the stuff of literature and legend But what exactly was it Surprisingly no full scale history of the workhouse has ever been written Here historian Norman Longmate tells the full story from its beginnings in Elizabethan times until its demise in the 1940s though mainly concentrating on the Victorian workhouse in the years of its tarnished glory He describes the circumstances in the 1830s that led to the opening of 600 new workhouses an event that met with astonishingly little opposition among reformers He also records the riots the protests and the pleadings with which the poor challenged their virtual enslavement and the misery of their daily lives when they were finally incarcerated within the workhouse walls The Workhouse System 1834-1929 M. A. Crowther, 2016-06-17 First published in 1981 Professor Crowther traces the history of the workhouse system from the Poor Law Amendment Act of 1834 to the Local Government Act of 1929 At their outset the large residential institutions were seen by the Poor Law Commissioners as a cure for nearly all social ills In fact these formidable impersonal prison like buildings housing all paupers under one roof became institutionalised places where routine came to be an end in itself In the early twentieth century some of the workhouses became hospitals or homes for the old or handicapped but many continued to form a residual service for those who needed long term care Crowther pays attention not only to the administrators but also to the inmates and their daily life She illustrates that the workhouse system was not simply a nineteenth century phenomenon but a forerunner of many of today s social institutions The State and the Doctor Sidney Webb, Beatrice Webb, 1910 The Medical Directory , 1898 District of Columbia Appropriations United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations, 1907 Cobbett's Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament, 1889 Report of the Royal Commission on the Aged Poor Great Britain.
