Kempton,2007 This very important book reaffirms the beauty and uniqueness of children s developing minds and the power that is unleashed when their imaginations are nurtured Susan Zimmermann Kindergarten has changed and not necessarily for the better Once a joyful time when children grow into school gradually today it often resembles a watered down first grade where academic pressures squelch creativity and play The Literate Kindergarten shows how carefully balancing academics with song movement talk and play creates an environment where every child can grow and learn Sue Kempton is a master teacher and in The Literate Kindergarten she shares the thinking the structures even the precise language she uses to help young children become motivated engaged and joyful learners Kempton guides you through the three domains of learning on which she bases her lessons and actions the cognitive creative and emotional With this framework in mind Kempton offers clues to interpreting children s talk and body language so that you know which domain they are engaged in as well as specific questions and phrases that draw out their thinking and make learning visible From there The Literate Kindergarten offers effective suggestions for establishing routines and creating cooperation developing oral language modeling the language of thinking teaching across content areas supporting students as they become socialized to school recognizing the vital importance of integrating music movement and play familiarizing children with concepts of print comprehension strategies and other important literacy habits Discover thoughtful ways to create a safe nurturing predictable learning space for children where their thoughts and feelings are encouraged Read The Literate Kindergarten and discover a comprehensive resource that can bring joy and serious learning to your classroom

Curriculum Review ,1981     Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2008-02     Making Content Comprehensible for English Learners Jana Echevarria,MaryEllen Vogt,Deborah Short,2004 Like no other text on the market Making Content Comprehensible presents an empirically validated model of sheltered instruction This text contains the Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol SIOP model which provides school administrators staff developers teachers teacher candidates university faculty and field experience supervisors with a tool for observing and quantifying a teacher s implementation of quality sheltered instruction New to This Edition A new additional chapter addresses the issue of English learners who are struggling readers and or students with disabilities by including detailed information about learning disabilities and delayed development in reading Ch 10 Revised vignettes present teaching scenarios where three teachers teaching the same grade level and content attempt to include the focal SIOP indicators with varying degrees of success Complete lesson descriptors allow readers to score the three teaching scenarios and help readers develop a degree of inter rater reliability New pedagogy Each chapter contains A graphic organizer that provides an overview of the chapter Background Sections that include descriptions of the 8 sections and 30 indicators of the SIOP to help readers plan and prepare effective sheltered lessons Background Discussion Questions appropriate for portfolio development in pre service and graduate classes for professional development workshops or for reflection. The new larger trim size facilitates using in the classroom the SIOP long and short versions and the lesson plan forms and rating the vignettes. Includes both the full SIOP and an abbreviated version for the reader's use. Two different SIOP lesson plan formats that can be used for planning and preparation depending on your needs. An Appendix contains the results of studies that demonstrate that English learners whose teachers used the SIOP model outperformed similar students whose teachers did not implement the model. Making Content Comprehensible is very practical and right on target for strategies in the field of ELLs.

Professor Gerald McCain, Southern Oregon University, what clearly distinguishes Making Content Comprehensible from others in the field is that it provides an easy to use, powerful, field-tested protocol for effective lesson planning, delivery, and assessment.

Professor Karen L. Newman, Indiana University, the strength of Making Content Comprehensible is the clear picture it provides of instruction and the teaching scenarios. The discussion of the teaching techniques and evaluation of each of the three teachers provides invaluable examples for the student.

Professor Judith B. O'Loughlin, New Jersey City University, author Bios: Dr. Jana Echevarria is Chair of the Department of Educational Psychology, Administration, and Counseling at California State University Long Beach.
