The Political Economy of Mountain Java Robert W. Hefner, 2023-09-01 A rich and sensitive portrait of a changing peasantry this study is also a general inquiry into the nature of status class and community in the developing world Robert Hefner presents an analysis designed to bridge the gap between village studies and social history He describes the forces that have shaped upland politics and society from pre colonial times to the Green Revolution today A rich and sensitive portrait of a changing peasantry this study is also a general inquiry into the nature of status class and community in the developing world Robert Hefner presents an analysis designed to bridge the gap between village studies and The Political Economy of Decollectivization Thomas Otto Sikor, 1999 Islam and Citizenship in Indonesia Robert W.

Hefner, 2023-12-19 Islam and Citizenship in Indonesia examines the conditions facilitating democracy women's rights and inclusive citizenship in Indonesia the most populous Muslim majority country and the third largest democracy in the world The book shows that Muslim understandings of Islamic traditions and ethics have coevolved with the understanding and practice of democracy and citizen belonging Following thirty two years of authoritarian rule in 1998 this sprawling Southeast Asian country returned to electoral democracy The achievement brought with it however an upsurge in both the numbers and assertiveness of Islamist militias as well as a sharp increase in violence against religious minorities The resulting mobilizations have pitted the Muslim supporters of an Indonesian variety of inclusive citizenship against populist proponents of Islamist majoritarianism Seen from this historical example the book demonstrates that Muslim actors come to know and practice Islam in a manner not determined in an unchanging way by scriptural commands but in coevolution with broader currents in politics society and citizen belonging By exploring these questions in both an Indonesian and comparative context this book offers important lessons on the challenge of democracy and inclusive citizenship in the Muslim majority world Well written and informative this book will be suitable for adoption in university courses on Islam Southeast Asian Politics Indonesian and Asian studies as well as courses dealing with religion democracy and citizen belonging in multicultural societies around the world The book will be of interest to the general reader with an interest in Islam citizenship and democracy Surviving against the Odds S. Ann Dunham, 2009-12-24 A revised version of S Ann Dunham's anthropology dissertation that examines the economic importance of the blacksmithing trade in the rural Javanese village of Kajar

Conversion to Christianity Robert W. Hefner, 2023-04-28 One of the most striking developments in the history of modern civilizations has been the conversion of tribal peoples to more expansively organized world religions There is little scholarly consensus as to why these religions have endured and why conversion to them has been so widespread These essays explore the phenomenon of Christian conversion from this world building perspective Combining rich case studies with original theoretical insights this work challenges sociologists anthropologists and historians of religion to reassess the varieties of religious experience and the convergent processes involved in religious change This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994 One of the most striking developments in the history of modern civilizations has been the conversion of tribal peoples to more expansively organized world religions There is little scholarly consensus as to why these religions have endured and why conv

Muslim Diversity Leif Manger, 2013-10-18 The term local Islam has been coined to describe local responses to the effects of globalisation in the Islamic world All contributions to this volume present cases of local Islam as well as discussing the term itself But what all of this group of anthropologists and historians convey is a feeling of dissatisfaction with the very term Their uneasiness relates to the conceptual problems arising from seeing Islam as either local or global Rather the authors argue in favour of a focus not on Islam but on the lives of Muslims putting their lives into the context of complex historical developments Ranging across much of the vast extent of the Islamic world from West Africa and the Near East to China and Southeast Asia the contributions deal with the effects of migration on local Islamic traditions in Bangladesh conflicts between Muslim sects in Pakistan the development of jihad in West Africa the problem of maintaining a Muslim identity in China how Javanese Muslims combine their Islamic faith with belief in a local Javanese spirit world the comparison between urban and rural based Islam in Syria and in two studies from western Sudan issues of belief and broader aspects of identity management in a multi ethnic situation

Islamic Modern Michael G. Peletz, 2018-06-05 How do Islamic courts work What sorts of cultural understandings inform judicial process and litigants strategies How do women's claims fare Do these courts promote social tolerance And how do states use them to consolidate power build nations and shape a modern citizenry These are among the questions addressed in this book which not only enhances our understanding of diversity among and within the world's Muslim communities but also provides ethnographic historical and transnational perspectives on contemporary Islam in the shifting landscape of a strategically important region of the world Focusing on Malaysia which has sustained more rapid development than probably any other Muslim nation Michael Peletz explores the culture political economy and history of Islamic courts He demonstrates that they are centrally involved in the creation and policing of new Malay Muslim identities such as middle class urban dwellers that the state sees as the basis for a national polity that will be highly competitive He also shows how and why Islamic courts are key sites in struggles involving ethnic and religious groups social classes political parties and others with a major stake in defining Islam's role with respect to the maintenance of sovereignty and the achievement of modernity and civil society in an age of globalization Peletz deepens our knowledge of Islamic political development in a country very much concerned with forging an Islamic modernity viewed by its leaders as a viable alternative to Western style modernization

Journal of the Anthropological Society of Oxford, 1992 Post Colonial Society and Culture in Southeast Asia, 2001 Economists with Guns Bradley Simpson, 2008-03-28 Economists

with Guns offers the first comprehensive history of U S relations with Indonesia during the 1960s exploring the shared U S and Indonesian embrace of an authoritarian regime committed to military led development Dissociated Identities Rita Smith Kipp,1993-10-08 An analysis of how Indonesia s policies on culture religion and class affect a particular ethnic group the Karo Imagining Indonesia James William Schiller,1997 Increased interest in Indonesian culture and politics is reflected in this work s effort to advance and reject various notions of what it means to be Indonesian It also addresses perceptions of how Indonesia s citizens and state officials should interact Because in recent times the Indonesian state has been so strong much of the book is about state sanctioned and state supported notions of Indonesian identity and culture and efforts to come to terms with or sometimes to challenge these official or dominant notions The contributions presented here represent a wide range of disciplines points of view and ideological orientations Taken together they convey the notion that much might be gained if the idea were abandoned that a single understanding of what constitutes Indonesian culture is possible or desirable Marriage and Divorce in Islamic South-East Asia Gavin W. Jones,1994 This study draws on statistical historical and ethnographic data to provide a clear and comprehensive picture of the remarkable changes which have occurred in this region since the 1950s Age at marriage for females has risen sharply age differences between spouses have narrowed and divorce rates have fallen drastically in relation to rates in Western countries Gavin Jones sets these trends within the context of the pre Islamic situation in the region and the more recent political social religious economic and legal changes which have influenced family and marriage patterns This is a fascinating account of changes in marriage and divorce patterns in a region experiencing rapid economic and social development Indonesia, a Country Study William H. Frederick,Robert L. Worden,1993 Describes the history politics customs etc of India Area Handbook Series ,1993 Gender and Land Use Mirjam de Bruijn,1997 Comprises 11 essays which analyse the interlinkages between gender land use and environmental management in order to see what lessons can be learnt with regard to trends and diversity in these interlinkages Most of the articles are case studies Index of Islamic Literature ,1991 Development and the Environment in Asia Ian Coxhead,2002 (Re) Claiming the Watershed Sissel Annette Waage,2000 Paper Landscapes P. Boomgaard,Freek Colombijn,David Henley,1997 Too much of what has so far passed for the historical background to Indonesia s environmental problems has consisted of little more than thinly disguised backward projections of modern trends The writers in this volume report on their own pioneer journeys into the paper landscapes of the colonial literature and archives in search of the real environmental history of Indonesia
