World Of Tomorrow:

Low Rent Housing and the City of Tomorrow Nathan Straus, United States Housing Authority, 1939 World of Fairs
Robert W. Rydell, 1993-11 In the depths of the Great Depression when America's future seemed bleak nearly one hundred million people visited expositions celebrating the century of progress These fairs fired the national imagination and served as cultural icons on which Americans fixed their hopes for prosperity and power World of Fairs continues Robert W Rydell's unique cultural history begun in his acclaimed All the World's a Fair this time focusing on the interwar exhibitions He shows how the ideas of a few particularly artists architects and scientists were broadcast to millions proclaiming the arrival of modern America a new empire of abundance build on old foundations of inequality Rydell revisits several fairs highlighting the 1926 Philadelphia Sesquicentennial the 1931 Paris Colonial Exposition the 1933-34 Chicago Century of Progress Exposition the 1935-36 San Diego California Pacific Exposition the 1936 Dallas Texas Centennial Exposition the 1937 Cleveland Great Lakes and International Exposition the 1939-40 San Francisco Golden Gate International Exposition the 1939-40 New York World's Fair and the 1958 Brussels Universal Exposition Meet Me at the Fair: A World's Fair Reader
Celia Pearce, Bobby Schweizer, Laura Hollengreen, Rebecca Rouse, 2014 Together with the Olympics world's fairs are one of the few regular international events of sufficient scale to showcase a spectrum of sights wonders learning opportunities technological advances and new or renewed urban districts and to present them all to a mass audience Meet Me at the Fair A World's Fair Reader breaks new ground in scholarship on world's fairs by incorporating a number of short new texts that investigate world's fairs in their multiple aspects political urban architectural anthropological sociological technological commercial popular and representational Contributors come from eight different countries and represent affiliations in academia museums and libraries professional and architectural firms non profit organizations and government regulatory agencies In taking the measure of both the material artifacts and the larger cultural production of world's fairs the volume presents its own phantasmagoria of disciplinary perspectives historical periods geographical locales media and messages mirroring the microcosmic form of the world's fair itself Philosophy, Rhetoric, and the End of Knowledge Steve Fuller, James H. Collier, 2003-12-08 In this second edition of Steve Fuller's original work Philosophy Rhetoric and the End of Knowledge A New Beginning for Science and Technology Studies James Collier joins Fuller in developing an updated and accessible version of Fuller's classic volume The new edition shifts focus slightly to balance the discussions of theory and practice and the writing style is oriented to advanced students It addresses the contemporary problems of knowledge to develop the basis for a more publicly accountable science The resources of social epistemology are deployed to provide a positive agenda of research teaching and political action designed to bring out the best in both the ancient discipline of rhetoric and the emerging field of science and technology studies STS The authors reclaim and integrate STS and rhetoric to explore the problems of knowledge as a social process problems of increasing public interest that extend beyond traditional disciplinary resources In so doing the differences among disciplines must be questioned the exercise of STS and the disciplinary boundaries must be renegotiated the exercise of rhetoric This book innovatively integrates a sophisticated theoretical approach to the social processes of creating knowledge with a developing pedagogical apparatus The thought questions at the end of each chapter the postscript and the appendix allow the reader to actively engage the text in order to discuss and apply its theoretical insights Creating new standards for interdisciplinary scholarship and communication the authors bring numerous disciplines into conversation in formulating a new kind of rhetoric geared toward greater democratic participation in the knowledge making process This volume is intended for students and scholars in rhetoric of science science studies philosophy and communication and will be of interest in English sociology and knowledge management arenas as well

The Search for the Self Heinz Kohut, 2022-04-01 The re issuing of the four volumes of the author s writings is a major publishing event for psychoanalysts who are interested in both the theoretical and the therapeutic aspects of psychoanalysis These volumes contain the author s pre self psychology essays as well as those he wrote in order to continue to expand on his groundbreaking ideas which he presented in The Analysis of the Self the Restoration of the Self and in How Does Analysis Cure These volumes of The Search for the Self permit the reader to understand not only the above three basic texts of psychoanalytic self psychology more profoundly but also to appreciate the author s sustained openness to further changes to dare to present his self psychology as in continued flux influenced by newly emerging empirical data of actual clinical practice The current re issue of the four volumes of The Search for the Self would assure that the younger generation of psychoanalysts would be exposed to a clinical theory that could contribute greatly to solving the therapeutic dilemmas facing psychoanalysis today This is Volume two
