Género, nación y literatura Carmen Pereira-Muro, 2012-11-15 Lugar de Emilia Pardo Baz n en la literatura espa ola y gallega se ha ganado duro y ella todav a no ha recibido el reconocimiento que se merece En G nero naci n y literatura Emilia Pardo Baz n en la literatura gallega y Espa ola Carmen Pereira Muro estudia la obra y personalidad de este fascinante autor en el contexto de los nacionalismos que compiten espa ol y gallego Ella vuelve a leer las historias literarias y c nones nacionales de Espa a y Galicia como narrativas patriarcales que luchan para asimilar o silenciar proyecto nacional alternativo de Pardo Baz n Pereira Muro sostiene que Pardo Baz n postul la inclusi n de las mujeres en la cultura nacional como un paso clave para eludir la l gica representacional detr s de realismo y el liberalismo en el estado naci n moderno Al insistir en que las mujeres deben ser socios iguales Pardo Baz n adopt problem ticamente el binarismo patriarcal que asigna a la mujer a la naturaleza y los hombres a la cultura pero tambi n subvierte que al negar su relaci n complementaria Su elecci n astuta y manipulaci n de modelos culturales masculinos Realismo no Romanticismo prosa no la poes a lengua castellana no gallego en ltima instancia su a pesar de la feroz oposici n ganaron inclusi n en el canon nacional espa ol Por otra parte el estudio de sus relaciones con espinosos emergente nacionalismo gallego muestra que su exclusi n de la literatura gallega se debi en gran parte a su actuaci n transgresora g nero Finalmente Pereira Muro sostiene que en la ltima novela del autor Pardo Baz n experiment con la creaci n de una escritura femenina y una femenina canon para Espa a Sin embargo la pol tica de g nero predominantes aseguraron que s lo su producci n realista masculino lo hizo en el canon espa ol y no este ltimo modernista escrito femenino En conclusi n este libro cuestiona la naturalizaci n de los c nones nacionales por el descubrimiento de las pol ticas de g nero detr s de lo que se echa determinada como natural por idiomas y geograf a Hacer esto tambi n expone a las restricciones de g nero paralelas en el trabajo detr s aparentemente opuestos central espa ol y Galicia proyectos nacionales perif ricos Emilia Pardo Bazan s place in Spanish and Galician literatures has been hard won and she has yet to receive the recognition she deserves In G nero naci n y literatura Emilia Pardo Baz n en la literatura gallega y Espa ola Carmen Pereira Muro studies the work and persona of this fascinating author in the context of Spanish and Galician competing nationalisms She re reads the literary histories and national canons of Spain and Galicia as patriarchal master narratives that struggle to assimilate or silence Pardo Baz n s alternative national project Pereira Muro argues that Pardo Baz n posited the inclusion of women in the national culture as a key step in circumventing the representational logic behind Realism and Liberalism in the modern nation state By insisting that women should be equal partners Pardo Baz n problematically adopted the patriarchal binarism that assigns women to Nature and men to Culture but she also subverted it by denying its supplemental relationship Her astute choice and manipulation of masculine cultural models Realism not Romanticism prose not poetry Castilian language not Galician ultimately won her despite fierce opposition inclusion in the Spanish national canon Furthermore the study of her thorny relations with emerging Galician nationalism shows that her exclusion from Galician literature was due largely to her transgressive gender performance Finally Pereira Muro contends that in the author s last novel Pardo Baz n experimented with creating a feminine writing and a feminine canon for Spain Nevertheless the prevailing gender politics ensured that only her realist masculine production made it into the Spanish canon and not this last modernist feminine writing In conclusion this book questions the naturalization of national canons by uncovering the gender politics behind what is cast as naturally determined by language and geography Doing this also exposes the parallel gender strictures at work behind seemingly opposed central Spanish and peripheral Galician national projects
