Campbell,1998-11-24 One of America's most noted contemporary novelists John Irving has created a body of fiction of extraordinary range moving with ease from romance to fairytale to thriller Although his fiction follows in the tradition of the great 19th century world novelists he is a quintessential American writer his novels are laced with broad humor farce and absurd situations He does not hesitate to tackle the troubling issues that have faced our nation in the past few decades such as war racism sexism abortion violence and AIDS This study offers a clear accessible reading of Irving's fiction It analyzes in turn all of his novels from Setting Free the Bears 1968 to his newest novel A Widow for One Year 1998 It also provides the reader with a complete bibliography of Irving's fiction as well as selected reviews and criticism Following a biographical chapter on Irving's life an overview of his fiction explores his work in light of his literary heritage and use of a variety of genres Each of the following chapters examines an individual novel Setting Free the Bears 1968 The Water Method Man 1972 The 158 Pound Marriage 1973 The World According to Garp 1976

The Hotel New Hampshire 1981 The Cider House Rules 1985 A Prayer for Owen Meany 1989 A Son of the Circus 1994 and A Widow for One Year 1998 The discussion of each novel includes sections on plot and character development thematic issues and a new and fresh critical approach from which to read the novel Campbell explores the great moral range in Irving s novels She shows that all his novels deal with a character s quest to discover the self a journey of raw energy that touches us because we recognize it as our own This study will help readers to appreciate the experimental fiction that is Irving s trademark and his ability to capture the essence of American life in the last part of the twentieth century A Study Guide
