Comic Mythology Premyogi vajra,2024-02-26 Spiritual satire is nothing new There are many satirical verses in Vedas Puranas and other Sanatan based scriptures which despite being full of spiritual knowledge also provide high level entertainment Similarly in our ancient theatre style Kariyala there used to be many satirical skits on spirituality Even today Kariyala is prevalent especially among the hill cultures In Kariyala some acrobats type actors would come in the satirical guise of a sage while others would come in the guise of a guru disciple The audience used to hold their belly while laughing We have seen many Kariyalas in our childhood and have also got them done at home It continued throughout the night There was no trace of sleep and it was hard to realize when the night passed with laughter This allowed two tasks to be performed simultaneously People were thoroughly entertained and their spiritual knowledge and outlook also improved The names of the people in it also used to be sarcastic like Ridku Ram Jado Devi etc Kariyalachi used to spread fun and freshness all around by dancing and singing satirical songs in a satirical style to the beat of real drums along with beating none real drums as ruptured tin containers dung baskets etc laughable things those even wearing dress made up of torn empty jute bags etc and showing many more satiric tricks like this while always keeping themselves in a balanced and neutral way from inside otherwise religious sentiments of public could have been hurt No one felt bad about the social jokes made on spirituality or religion This is a good example of tolerance and universality of Sanatan Dharma Children and unfaithful people used to get good spiritual lessons unknowingly with entertainment in this way It is also a psychological fact that something learnt with entertainment is more attractive and productive I don't see anything wrong in this if the purpose behind doing this is only to promote knowledge and entertainment with sociality respect and faith and not to spread an agenda full of hatred Today the world should take lessons from such cultural art styles and try to popularize them by promoting them so that the rapidly increasing religious fanaticism and intolerance can be controlled and the entire human race can be protected This short book is a small attempt to easily understand the core essence of spirituality in a humorous style It would not be an exaggeration to call this book an ocean in a pitcher Zad Al-Ma'ad - Provisions Of The Afterlife Which Lie Within Prophetic
