His American men worshipped him The Chinese armies he trained and led would have gone through hell for him But the politicians both in Chungking and Washington hated his guts And after two and a half years of bitter struggle in the China Burma India theater during the dog days of World War II General Joseph W Stilwell was abruptly relieved of his command and brought back to the U S in an atmosphere of crime From the time he flew to the Far East to assume command of the handful of American forces in the C B I theater until his recall in 1944 General Stilwell was engaged in one of the most complex difficult and confidential operations in American military history The Stilwell Papers brilliantly edited and arranged by Theodore H White who knew the General in the C B I theater record Stilwell's on the spot account of the people and events of the moment with the salty directness of a man obligated to please no one but himself But this book is not only an account of the various glories and frustrations of war it is also the autobiography of one of America's greatest World War II commanders General Stilwell was a strong courageous man deeply devoted to his country and charged with crucial responsibilities and The Stilwell Papers is the deeply moving and striking self portrait of that man and his struggle

Chiang's chief of staff underestimating the fighting ability of the Japanese and disregarding Chiang's advice followed a strategy in the first Burma campaign that contributed to the loss of Chiang's best divisions and the chance of holding north Burma. Stilwell's obsessive demand for a new Burma campaign involved him in bitter controversies with Chiang, the British, and U.S. Air Commander Claire Chennault. When the British demanded that Stilwell be removed from Burma, he, with Roosevelt's support, demanded that Chiang turn over to him the command of China's armed forces, which was equivalent to control of China. But Americans could not enforce this demand on Chiang, who expelled Stilwell from China. Ambassador Patrick Hurley then attempted to arrange a coalition government between Chiang and the Communists, a proposal Chiang rejected. At Roosevelt's insistence, Chiang allowed America to send U.S. personnel the Dixie Mission to the Communist headquarters at Yennan. Mao Tse Tung convinced Foreign Service Officer John Service and others that he sought a cooperative relationship with America in order, among other reasons, to reduce his dependence on Russia. Before Stilwell's dismissal, Americans had decided to arm the Communists, but the removal of Stilwell defeated that purpose, and U.S. aid continued to go exclusively to Chiang. It appeared that the ideological preferences of Americans brought about a postponement of cooperation with the ultimately victorious Chinese Communists, despite an eventual common interest in keeping Soviet influence in East Asia in check. This comprehensive study is illustrated and includes a chronology, glossary, bibliography, and index.
