Stray Birds:

Stray Birds Rabindranath Tagore, 2004-09-01 Stray Birds contains ideas on nature man and his environment as may be entertained by a man sitting by a window where the stray birds of summer sing and fly away These short sometimes merely one line poems are often just an image or the distillation of a thought but they stay in the mind and do not fly away as easily as the birds The author Rabindranath Tagore was a Nobel laureate for literature 1913 as well as one of India's greatest poets and the composer of independent India's national anthem as well as that of Bangladesh He wrote successfully in all literary genres but was first and foremost a poet publishing more than 50 volumes of poetry He was a Bengali writer who was born in Calcutta and later traveled around the world He was knighted in 1915 but gave up his knighthood after the massacre of demonstrators in India in 1919 Stray Birds Rabindranath Tagore, 1951 Stray Birds (Classic Reprint) Rabindranath Tagore, 2015-07-04 Excerpt from Stray Birds The sands in your way beg for your song and your movement dancing water Will you carry the burden of their lameness About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Birds of Devon William Samuel Mitchell D'Urban, Murray Alexander Mathew, 1892 A Gossip on the Wild Birds of Norwood and Crystal Palace District W. Queering Normativity and South Asian Public Culture J. Daniel Luther,2023-09-30 This book develops a queer methodology to analyse a queer archive for the impact of normativity on subjecthood and the ways in which it shapes and curtails gender and sexuality Chapters demonstrate how normativity functions to mask its own operation is internalised by subjects and is continually reproduced through discourse and in material ways In seeking to make visible the functioning of normativity the book performs a task of queering normativity by querying that which appears as natural in South Asian public culture The book engages with both the consolidation and the unsettling of normativity through artefacts of South Asian public culture including canonical figures such as Rabindranath Tagore literary and cinematic texts Bollywood films advertisements social media posts and ubiquitous ephemera in South Asia and beyond Through these texts the author unpacks the construct of canon the nation woman as a post colonial subject the home and the child marriage same sex sexuality and identity This book will be of interest to scholars and students studying and researching Queer Studies Gender and Sexuality Studies South Asian Studies Cultural Studies Literary Studies Film Studies and Media Studies Stray Birds Rabindranath Tagore,2020-02-29 STRAY birds of summer come to my window to sing and fly away And yellow leaves of autumn which have no songs flutter and fall there with a sigh O TROUPE of little vagrants of the world leave your footprints in my words THE world puts off its mask of vastness to its lover It becomes small as one song as one kiss of the eternal IT is the tears of the earth that keep her smiles in bloom THE mighty desert is burning for the love of a blade of grass who shakes her head and laughs and flies away THE sands in your way beg for your song and your movement dancing water Will you carry the burden of their lameness HER wistful face haunts my dreams like the rain at night ONCE we dreamt that we were strangers We wake up to find that we were dear to each other SORROW is hushed into peace in my heart like the evening among the silent trees SOME unseen fingers like idle breeze are playing upon my heart the music of the ripples LISTEN my heart to the whispers of the world with which it makes love to you Report on the migration of birds, by J.A.H.
