Dostoevsky's Polyphonic Talent Joe E. Barnhart,2005 This book illuminates the connectedness of Dostoevsky s literary art with his philosophical and psychological brilliance Two Fyodor Dostoevsky conferences originating at the University of North Texas set the stage for this volume Scholars contributed original papers focusing on how Dostoevsky s literary art and philosophical insights enrich one another Fyodor Dostoevsky wrote and thought polyphonically His polyphonic method is both his special literary technique and his distinctive way of probing theological social and philosophical depths As Bakhtin and Terras suggest all Dostoevsky s major literary inventions from the underground man to the vitriolic Grushenka are products of his ability to listen profoundly to his own characters Like the genius author redactor of 1 and 2 Samuel he reports the heights and depths of human emotion and behavior whether exploring the anatomy of dysfunctional families making the heart soar with Zosima s vision of forgiveness or giving Ivan Karamazov full rein to challenge theism Dostoevsky s characters transform themselves into irregular verbs whose fierce independence emerges only because of their desperate and inescapable interdependence His major characters are text subtext and context for each other They play inside each other s head and answer in one way or another

Notes from the Underground (Annotated): Notes from the Underground Fyodor Dostoyevsky,2021-03-13 The Underground Man our first person narrator begins by telling us how hateful and unattractive he is It seems he s been living underground for 20 years unable to act in any way because he s so intelligent he can debunk any justification for doing so Intelligent men he says can never become anything and he himself is the case in point The Underground Man reveals that he is 40 years old and living in St Petersburg Russia He used to be a civil servant but he inherited some money and retired all the more time for discoursing on his life s many problems Despite his surroundings of mire and filth he sometimes experiences attacks of the sublime and beautiful American Beauty style moments where is taken by the awe inspiring things of the world art philosophy love His narration takes the form of a retort he imagines his reader responding to his absurd claims so he fills in our half of the conversation and then responds in turn His first big argument concerns free will and the laws of nature He chooses 2 2 4 to represent all the laws of reason and asks how we can all be free if we have to accept 2 2 4 even if want it to equal five A normal man a man of action will just accept it but he a man of hyper consciousness cannot Next we move to the subject of suffering Suffering the Underground Man argues is enjoyable particularly when you re conscious of it For instance when he knows he s at rock bottom and has no chance of ever getting better he takes pleasure in that Intentional suffering he later explains has a lot to do with free will and the laws of nature that we ve already mentioned The Underground Man considers that we may someday figure out all the laws of nature and then be able to predict what everyone will do think and want Were this to happen he predicts man would just go mad to escape the determinism If you tell man that he will act according to reason that he will always pursue his best interests he will consciously act against that just because he can Man will cause destruction and chaos to prove that he has free will The Underground Man uses this as a reason to reject the idea of a perfect socialist society referred to as Crystal Palace Free will doesn t allow it and besides he would resent a structure which he couldn t deride He also argues that man loves building things not having a finished product We wouldn t be satisfied with perfection because there would be nothing left to do As Part I draws to a close the Underground Man tells us that he will never have readers his audience will always be imaginary We move into Part II which is made up of the Underground Man s reminiscences back to when he was 24 years old Before the flashbacks start however he complains for a while about Romanticism He dislikes silly cloud gazing romantics from France and Germany To him Russian romantics are a very different sort capable of appreciating the sublime and beautiful but still rooted in reality He seems to fancy himself one of these Russian romantics and often indulges in literary fantasies of the sublime and beautiful Now onto his memories The first story concerns an officer who greatly offended our narrator by taking him by the shoulders and moving him out of the way one night in a tavern The horror The Underground Man harbors his spite for years and plots revenge deciding to bump into the officer intentionally while walking along the Nevsky the major central street in St Petersburg The plotting and planning drags on and when the bump finally goes down the Underground Man gets the worst of it as the officer doesn t even notice The next story this is another flashback of the young Underground Man involves a going away dinner for an alpha male named Zverkov whom big surprise the Underground Man hates The Underground man invites himself along to the dinner thrown by several mutual friends and makes Annual Report on Mines Nova Scotia. Notes from the Underground Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2006 Dostoevsky's underground man is a psychologically tortured poor clerk who muses on his sickness and the detested notions of self interest Scornful of himself and of others he recalls finding love at a brothel but it is a love by his very nature he cannot accept and so debases instead
