The Étude and Musical World ,1896 Living Politics, Making Music Jan Fairley,edited by Simon Frith,Ian Christie,2016-05-13 The late Jan Fairley 1949 2012 was a key figure in making world music a significant topic for popular music studies and an influential contributor to such world music magazines as fRoots and Songlines This book celebrates her contribution to popular music scholarship by gathering her most important work together in a single place The result is a richly informed and entertaining volume that will be of interest to all scholars in the field while also serving as an excellent introduction for students interested in popular music as a global phenomenon Fairley s work was focused on the problems and possibilities of cross cultural musical influences fantasies and flows and on the importance of performing circuits and networks Her interest in the details of music making and in the lives of music makers means that this collection is also an original and illuminating study of music and politics In drawing on Jan Fairley s journalism this volume also offers students a guide to various genres of world music from Cuban son to flamenco as well as an insight into the lives of such world music stars as Mercedes Sosa and Silvio Rodr guez This is inspiring as well as essential reading

The New Grove Dictionary of Music and Musicians Stanley Sadie,John Tyrrell,2001 The Musical Standard ,1884 Postnational Musical Identities Ignacio Corona,Alejandro L. Madrid,2007-12-28 Postnational Musical Identities gathers interdisciplinary essays that explore how music audiences and markets are imagined in a globalized scenario how music reflects and reflects upon new understandings of citizenship beyond the nation state and how music works as a site of resistance against globalization Hybridity postnationalism transnationalism globalization diaspora and similar buzzwords have not only informed scholarly discourse and analysis of music but also shaped the way musical productions have been marketed worldwide in recent times While the construction of identities occupies a central position in this context there are discrepancies between the conceptualization of music as an extremely fluid phenomenon and the traditionally monovalent notion of identity to which it has historically been incorporated As such music has always been linked to the construction of regional and national identities The essays in this collection seek to explore the role of music networks of music distribution music markets music consumption music production and music scholarship in the articulation of postnational sites of identification
