New York, 2001-05 Embracing the Monster Veronica Crawford, 2002 What is it like to live with hidden disabilities You'll find out firsthand in Veronica Crawford's moving account of her life experiences with learning disabilities bipolar disorder ADHD dyslexia and sensory integrative disorder Through Veronica's struggles in school at work and in her personal relationships you'll gain insight into the emotional turmoil of living with hidden disabilities and be inspired by her resourcefulness as she learns to confront and accept them You'll also get clinical commentary from a noted expert on these types of disabilities Dr Larry B Silver who concludes each chapter with information on what can be done to help individuals with hidden disabilities lead more positive productive lives Together Veronica and Dr Silver share with you what they've found really works in both living with and overcoming one's hidden disabilities Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard

Rogers Bowker, L. Pylodet, Charles Ammi Cutter, Bertine Emma Weston, Karl Brown, Helen E. Wessells, 2007 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately An Ounce of Prevention Lawrence E. Shapiro, PhD, 2010-11-16 Most parents understand the importance of prevention when it comes to the physical health and safety of their children But what many parents don't realize is that it is also possible to use preventive measures for emotional and behavioral problems As child psychologist Dr Lawrence E Shapiro explains in this provocative new book parents tend to start paying attention only after actual symptoms begin to develop Yet many problems can be addressed long before symptoms appear if parents know just what to look for Preventing emotional problems is much easier than treating them after they have already become disruptive to a child's life In An Ounce of Prevention Dr Shapiro presents a variety of imaginative highly successful strategies for handling the pivotal moments in every child's emotional development from the infant and toddler years through the grad school and teenage years He helps you understand whether your child is at risk for specific problems and what you can do to reduce the risk Dr Shapiro offers advice for parents on such subjects as depression underachievement shyness eating disorders fallout from divorce ADHD and much more Some of the suggestions will seem like common sense Teaching your child good eating habits from a very young age will prevent eating disorders in adolescence Helping a shy child make a phone call to a new friend will prevent social alienation in the teen years But other recommendations may be surprising Fearful babies should not be coddled if they outgrow their hypersensitivity Toddlers should not be overly praised if you want them to as strive for success later in childhood Parents should become more involved in their teenagers education even when their teens are pulling away Filled with wonderful examples and lots of concrete advice this book presents all the skills you need to help your child become more resilient when confronted with many problems that face today's children and teens Provide an ounce of prevention every day It will make a difference in your child's happiness and yours Don't Miss the Bus! Mary Ann Smialek, 2003 This book is a thoughtful and practical guide that will appeal to today's busy parents The book focuses on children's strengths rather than their weaknesses the result being a happier more knowledgeable and resilient parent child teacher relationship The Publishers Weekly, 2007 Youth at Risk Dave Capuzzi, Douglas R. Gross, 2006 Youth at Risk provides tested prevention techniques from individual family school and community perspectives for work with diverse populations Drawing on the wisdom of 24 experts the fourth edition contains concrete advice for creating and maintaining environments in which children and adolescents can flourish Topics discussed include casual factors of destructive behavior dysfunctional family dynamics resilience stress depression counseling a queer youth violence eating disorders pregnancy suicide AIDS and gang membership Families, Schools, and Communities Together for Young Children Donna Lee Couchenour, Kent Chrisman, 2008 Families Schools and Communities Together for Young Children 3e is a book geared to meet national standards relating to forming family and community partnerships in teacher preparation programs and reflects current research and best practice in education The book has two sections Understanding Families and Application to Educational Settings covering current and contemporary issues faced by families The third edition adds a complete chapter on fostering family involvement in academic content areas including math literacy science and social studies This new chapter contains specific ideas and strategies for increasing family involvement in the community and in schools as well as learning at home New information is included about working with military families addressing issues of childhood obesity teaching children about financial literacy and managing money and advocacy efforts for children and families
