Topologies of the Classical World in Children's Fiction Claudia Nelson,Anne Morey,2019 Drawing on a cognitive poetics approach to reception studies this volume examines the use of spatial metaphors

palimpsest map and fractal to organize the classical past for preteen and adolescent readers arguing that these reflect different modes in children's literature and encourage different cognitive effects in readers

Hindsight and Insight William F. Edmiston, 1991 William F Edmiston revises current theories of what narratologists call focalization and applies his revised theory to four eighteenth century French memoir novels Hindsight and Insight contributes to our knowledge of the history and evolution of the novel by demonstrating that France's earliest novelists were already engaged in the kinds of narrative experimentation that are usually associated with modern writers It presents an analysis of the narrative point of view in both its theoretical aspects and its practical applications Edmiston exposes the inadequacies of current concepts of focalization and proposes a revised concept that is applicable to personal narration one that can accommodate all the focal possibilities available to the first person narrator He applies this concept to four French memoir novels Les Egarements du coeur et de l'esprit by Marivaux Manon Lescaut by Pr vost and La Religieuse by Diderot Each of these well known novels offers a different case study and raises specific theoretical questions of selective focalization forms of reported speech problems of temporal ambiguity manipulation of the reader narratorial reliability and cognitive privilege Edmiston's study proposes a reading of the novels that resolves certain problems of interpretation raised by other recent studies
