War, Nation and Europe in the Novels of Storm Jameson Katherine Cooper,2020-04-16 The novels of Storm Jameson and their depictions of Britain s relationship to Europe around the Second World War represent a crucial departure from the work of her contemporaries As the first female President of English PEN Jameson led her country s wartime literary community through turbulent times in history by focusing on European rather than pointedly British experiences of war War Nation and Europe in the Novels of Storm Jameson is a timely critique situated within the historical and theoretical contexts so fundamental to understanding her work Presenting previously unpublished archival material that documents her work as an ambassador for British writers during a time of national upheaval Katherine Cooper reveals how the novelist s pacifism and evolving attitudes to war and peace were underpinned by her overarching vision for the post war world Drawing comparisons to the works of Virginia Woolf Arthur Koestler Graham Greene and others this study shows how Jameson s novels gesture towards prevalent internationalist perspectives and reshapes how we view the literary history of the period

Writing South Africa Derek Attridge,Rosemary Jolly,1998-01-22 During the final years of the apartheid era and the subsequent transition to democracy South African literary writing caught the world s attention as never before Writers responded to the changing political situation and its daily impact on the country s inhabitants with works that recorded or satirised state enforced racism explored the possibilities of resistance and rebuilding and creatively addressed the vexed question of literature s relation to politics and ethics Writing South Africa offers a window on the literary activity of this extraordinary period that conveys its range going well beyond a handful of world renowned names and its significance for anyone interested in the impact of decolonisation and democratisation on the cultural sphere It brings together for the first time discussions by some of the most distinguished South African novelists poets and dramatists with those of leading
