Memory Rose into Threshold Speech Paul Celan, Barbara Wiedmann, 2020-11-24 Memory Rose into

Threshold Speech gathers the poet Paul Celan's first four books written between 1952 and 1963 which established his reputation as the major post World War II German language poet. Celan, a Bukovinian Jew who lived through the Holocaust, created work that displays both great lyric power and an uncanny ability to pinpoint totalitarian cultural and political tendencies. His quest, however, is not only reflective; there is in Celan's writing a profound need and desire to create a new inhabitable world and a new language for it. In Memory Rose into Threshold Speech, Celan's reader witnesses his poetry which starts lush with surrealistic imagery, become gradually pared down; its syntax tightens and his trademark neologisms and word formations increase toward a polysemic language of great accuracy that tries in the poet's own words to measure the area of the given and the possible. Translated by the prize-winning poet and translator Pierre Joris, this bilingual edition follows the 2014 publication of Breathturn into Timestead. Celan's collected later poetry. All nine volumes of Celan's poetry are now available in Joris's carefully crafted translations accompanied here by a new introduction and extensive commentary. The four volumes in this edition show the flowering of one of the major literary figures of the last century. This volume collects Celan's first four books: Mohn und Gedächtnis, Poppy and Memory, Von Schwelle zu Schwelle, Threshold to Threshold, Sprachgitter, Speechgrille, and Die Niemandrose, NoOne'sRose. Commentary On Singapore, Volume 3: Culture, Identity And Society Gillian Koh, 2024-05-03. Thought leaders contributing to this volume include Alvin Tan, Kwa Chong Guan, Yang Razali Kassim, Kishore Mahbubani, Gerard Ee, and more. This volume comprises essays republished from various issues of the annual journal of the National University of Singapore Society called Commentary. The third in a series that provides bite-sized reviews of the history of Singapore's development in a range of areas of public policy, it delves into the most challenging of them all: defining the Singapore nation, a quest that began just under six decades ago. This is an enterprise that the pioneer generation of political leaders recognised would provide collective purpose and the soul to what government and people do to establish the young country, an area that cannot rely on engineered solutions or diktat. The authors have proffered in these essays their assessments of these attempts at crafting this identity, but also the ground's responses: be they through the development of the arts, the government's political narratives, economic strategy, visions of urban development, and civic activism. Included are discussions on Singapore's model of multiracialism, its vision of being a global city, the impact of public policy in the redevelopment of housing estates, and an appeal to adopt a model of empowerment in addressing the needs of the poor, incorporating what citizens are saying about who we are and wish to be as a people. There is no single definition of what the Singapore nation is, nor should we wish for easy answers as they have to be created and grasped on the ground. There is no final destination. The authors make us all too aware that it will be an enduring journey into being, which is enriched by the freedom to explore ideas, ideals, values, the self, and the metaphysical condition of being a community of unity that is paradoxically necessarily comfortable with plurality, hybridity, and change. Owning this common journey is probably what distinguishes Singaporeans as a people, and the volume reminds readers of that. Knut
