The Mabacre:

The Massacre in History Mark Levene, Penny Roberts, 1999 The role of massacre in history has been given little focused attention either by historians or academics in related fields This is surprising as its prevalence and persistence surely demands that it should be a subject of serious and systematic exploration What exactly is a massacre When and why does it happen Is there a cultural as well as political framework within which it occurs How do human societies respond to it What are its social and economic repercussions Are massacres catalysts for change or are they part of the continuity of the human saga These are just some of the questions the authors address in this important volume Chronologically and geographically broad in scope The Massacre in History provides in depth analysis of particular massacres and themes associated with them from the 11th century to the present Specific attention is paid to 15th century Christian Jewish relations in Spain the St Bartholemew s Day massacre England and Ireland in the civil war era the 19th century Caucasus the rape of Nanking in 1937 and the Second World War origins of the Serb Croat conflict The book explores the subject of massacre from a variety of perspectives its relationship to politics culture religion and society its connection to ethnic cleansing and genocide and its role in gender terms and in relation to the extermination of animals The historians provide evidence to suggest that the massacre is often central to the course of human development and societal change Armenian Massacres Frederick Davis Greene, 1896 The Huguenots Samuel Smiles, 1895 History of Utah Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1890 Mormonism Unveiled John Doyle Lee, 1879 The 406 page edition of the 1877 printing of this title includes a 16 page appendix titled the Life of Brigham Young This was added to the 390 page first edition upon the death of Brigham Young in August 1877 and includes the 13th plate a portrait of Young The World's History Illuminated Israel Smith Clare, 1897 The Historical Record ,1897 Armenia and Europe Johannes Lepsius, 1897 Report ... to Inquire ...
