Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 1996 Teaching Language Arts, Math, & Science to Students with Significant Cognitive Disabilities Diane M. Browder, Fred Spooner, 2006 Going beyond functional and access skills this groundbreaking text shows educators how to make the general curriculum accessible and help students progress in academic content areas Second Language Reading and Vocabulary Learning Thomas Huckin, Margot Haynes, James Coady, 1993 Reading ability and vocabulary knowledge are two of the most important components of performance in a second language especially in academic settings Each depend on the other as vocabulary knowledge is the single most important factor in reading comprehension while reading is the single most important means by which intermediate and advanced learners acquire new words This symbiotic relationship is the subject of this volume The authors argue that building vocabulary through reading is a fruitful but complex activity that needs better understanding and more careful guidance This book is unique in its emphases on original research Eight of the 14 chapters are empirical studies published for the first time including classroom based case studies experimental research and think aloud protocol analysis In every chapter consideration is given to the pedagogical implications and possible applications of the research findings Lengthy editorial comments at the end of each chapter reinforce this practical concern

Teaching Children to Read Douglas Ray Reutzel, Robert B. Cooter, 2004 For Elementary Reading Methods courses This comprehensive and balanced look at literacy practice has long been one of the most popular reading methods texts available The text begins by introducing seven principles for comprehensive reading instruction and then explains the theoretical foundations of teaching reading Part I builds on those foundations with specific methods in Part II and then in Part III it describes how to create a variety of learning centers and how to plan developmentally appropriate reading curriculum for students in both K 3 and 4 8 classrooms chapters 12 and 13 provide a continuum of knowledge by describing classroom organization and curriculum for grades 4 6 and 6 8

Developing Competent Readers and Writers in the Primary Grades Martha Combs, 1996 This major new entry is a core text for the growing number of reading literacy methods courses which cover grades K through four The text emphasizes literature based reading but also discusses the appropriate use of phonics instruction in helping children to become literate

Readers and Writers in the Middle Grades Martha Combs, 2003 The second edition of this popular book for grades 4 8 again reflects the author's emphasis on teaching reading and writing from a literature based perspective and engaging middle grades learners in integrated literacy experiences Coverage has been revised to meet the growing need to address early adolescents who still struggle with becoming proficient readers and writers Taking a holistic interdisciplinary approach to literacy development Combs deftly balances ideas for using authentic children's literature with techniques for making the most of the basal approach providing a rich mix of classroom tested models and examples that will serve future teachers well in their first classrooms and every classroom thereafter For future and practice elementary school reading teachers
