This invaluable guide offers information on providing prenatal care, dealing with emergency situations, caring for newborns.

Guardianas Noemí Delgado, 2025-06-17 A collection of testimonies from midwives in El Salvador who delivered babies during the twelve year long civil war and today fight to protect their ancestral role to care for the reproductive health of their communities. This bilingual edition includes thirty color photographs and five black and white illustrations. An inspiring testament to the indispensable role of midwives in safeguarding life, culture, and community even against formidable odds.

Dorothy Roberts author of Killing the Black Body. In this book we get to listen to elders, warriors, guides, whose love, care, and support for the autonomy of people giving birth models the world we deserve.

Alexis Pauline Gumbs author of Survival Is a Promise. The Eternal Life of Audre Lorde. A book we need to read as across the world we face a relentless war against the main conditions of our reproduction.

Silvia Federici author of Caliban and the Witch and Wages Against Housework. During the twelve year long Salvadoran civil war, mothers and guerrilla fighters attended births out of necessity. While fleeing airstrikes in caves and beneath mango trees with no electricity or running water, these women became parteras, community midwives, and began to care for pregnant people in rural areas and refugee camps who could not access medical care. In 1994, in the wake of the armed struggle, the Association of Midwives Rosa Andrade APRA was born. Compiled from oral histories gathered in 2019 by Salvadoran American birth worker Noem Delgado, this bilingual anthology weaves together testimonies from twenty members of APRA to tell a collective story of midwifery and community care in revolutionary El Salvador. In Guardianas, the beauty of the testimonies and the care with which they were collected come together to safeguard a vision of a world rooted in fierce bravery, dignity, and ancestral wisdom.
