Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair,2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Textile Trades, Consumer

Cultures, and the Material Worlds of the Indian Ocean Pedro Machado,Sarah Fee,Gwyn Campbell,2018-02-09 This collection examines cloth as a material and consumer object from early periods to the twenty first century across multiple oceanic sites from Zanzibar Muscat and Kampala to Ajanta Srivijaya and Osaka It moves beyond usual focuses on a single fibre such as cotton or place such as India to provide a fresh expansive perspective of the ocean as an interaction based arena with an internal dynamism and historical coherence forged by material exchange and human relationships

Contributors map shifting social cultural and commercial circuits to chart the many histories of cloth across the region They also trace these histories up to the present with discussions of contemporary trade in Dubai Zanzibar and Eritrea Richly illustrated this collection brings together new and diverse strands in the long story of textiles in the Indian Ocean past and present Textiles of South-East Asia Angela Thompson,2007 A variety of textile techniques from across South East Asia are covered in this book with explanations and detailed images of the craftwork in progress Fashion's Missing Masses:

The representation of marginalized populations in collections and exhibitions of dress Kenna Libes,2026-01-06

Fashion s Missing Masses fills a gap in literature on museums and fashion collections and focuses on the display of clothing and fashion that has historically been left out of the canon The fifteen essays in this volume span topics on Indigenous and traditional dress disabled and fat bodies and queer and ethnic identities Their authors study the ways that dress and textiles have been collected displayed and often ignored across a century and a half of museum exhibitions Representation and inclusion in fashion museums is a new and rapidly evolving area of research in the reexamination of dress history These chapters provide unique information and perspectives on curation collections management conservation and research which will be valuable to a wide group of audiences working teaching and learning in and about museums This volume touches on practical concerns of exhibition including mannequin availability and difficulties of mounting dress as well as broader questions of scholarship and activism that will be key for educators and researchers who wish to stay abreast of developments in this field Diversity in fashion is a hot topic and understanding the line between tokenization and representation in spaces of institutional authority is crucial to learning how we can better serve our diverse populations in the teaching of history
