After Law Laurent de Sutter,2021-02-03 Law is the most sacred fetish of our time From radicals to conservatives there is no militant activist or thinker who would consider doing without it But the history of our fascination with law is long and complex and reaches deeper into our culture than we might think In After Law Laurent de Sutter takes us on a journey to uncover the sources of our fascination He shows that at a certain moment in our history a choice was made to treat law as a decisive feature of civilization but this choice was neither obvious nor necessary Other political social religious or cultural possibilities could have been chosen instead from ancient Egypt to Mesopotamia from medieval Japan to China from Islam to Judaism other cultures have devised sophisticated tools to help people live together without having to deal with norms rules and principles This is a lesson worth reflecting on especially at a time when the rule of law and the functioning of justice are
