But Lea's dramatic rise as an artist was further accentuated by her scandalous relationship with the revolutionary Onissim Goldovsky. As the world around them descends into chaos between revolution and war, we follow Lea and her family from Russia to Europe and eventually America. We cross paths with Pablo Casals, Isadora Duncan, Emile Zola, and even Leo Tolstoy. The little girl from Odessa will eventually end up as one of the founding faculty of the prestigious Curtis Institute of Music, but along the way she will lose her true love, her father, and watch a son die young. The Iron Curtain would rise, but through it all she plays on. Woven throughout this luminous odyssey is the story of Cesar Franck's Sonata for Violin and Piano. As Lea was one of the first ever internationally recognized female violinists, it is fitting that this pioneer was one of the strongest advocates for this young, boundary-pushing composer and his masterwork.
