The Stanford Law Chronicles Doin Time On The Farm:

The Stanford Law Chronicles Alfredo Mirandé,2005 In the midst of a long and distinguished academic career Alfredo Mirandé left his position as professor of sociology and chair of ethnic studies at the University of California Riverside to attend law school at Stanford University This book is an extraordinary chronicle of the events in his life that led him to make this dramatic change and of the many obstacles he encountered at law school The Stanford Law Chronicles is a comprehensive first person account of the law school experience written by a person of color Mirandé delivers a powerful and moving critique of the rigid hierarchies he encountered and of systematic attempts to strip him of his identity and culture He also reflects on the implications of an increasing number of women and minority law school students for law and legal education Although Stanford is considered to be one of the most progressive law schools in the country Mirandé's experience there was one of alienation and frustration as he encountered elitism and rigid hierarchies Covering all three years at Stanford he describes his experiences and the problems he encountered in the classroom Immigration Clinic where he successfully represented his first client and the alternative Lawyering for Social Change curriculum that became a haven in an otherwise hostile environment Interspersed with his account of law school are autobiographical snapshots and experiences including that of the death of his brother Hector which was the catalyst for his decision to pursue his childhood dream of attending law school and becoming a lawyer This controversial book is certain to spark lively debate

Masculinities in a Global Era Joseph Gelfer,2013-06-20 Masculinities in a Global Era extends the conversation of masculinity studies by analyzing global masculinities from a psychological perspective Canvassing a broad array of psychological aspects such as the construction of identity the negotiation of power coping with trauma and sexuality this volume shows how masculinities are experienced performed and embodied in geographically dispersed communities Importantly Masculinities in a Global Era fulfills a much needed but elusive need within the study of masculinities a forum in which the often polarized approaches of pro feminists and men's rights advocates can begin to move beyond their entrenched historical positions towards a more fruitful and nuanced future Stanford ,2006 Symposium, Latinos and Latinas at the Epicenter of Contemporary Legal Discourses ,2008 Current Publications in Legal and Related Fields ,2006

Neglected Social Theorists of Color Korey Tillman,David R. Dickens,C.C. Herbison,2022-10-12 Neglected Social Theorists of Color Deconstructing the Margins provides a novel contribution to the ongoing debates concerning the canon in contemporary sociological theory In particular the editors argue that many scholars whose work may hold significant potential for contributions to contemporary debates in social theory go unrecognized Still others while not completely ignored have fallen victim to a cultural and political climate not receptive to their work Feminist scholars have been in the forefront of these debates arguing that many insightful social theorists have been marginalized because of their gender More recently studies of individual theorists of color have appeared but these have been limited to African American scholars such as W E B Du Bois In the present text the editors extend this approach to include a broad diversity of theorists of color including those of African American Afro Caribbean Latinx Asian Asian American and Native American backgrounds In addition the editors also include the work of authors who come from academic fields outside of sociology and others who are journalists activists or independent writers The work has a unique format where the authors of each chapter provide a theoretical analysis of their subject and a discussion of the contemporary significance of their work lending to a rich discussion of underappreciated sociological scholars
