This Life:

Life and Labour Samuel Smiles, 1887      Nelson's Hero Victor T. Sharman, 1990-12-31 Horatio Nelson's first captain was William Locker who recognised the exceptional talents of the young midshipman who was to become the most famous sailor in history Thirty seven years later Admiral Lord Nelson wrote to Locker I have been your scholar it was you who taught me to board a Frenchman by your conduct It is you who always taught me to lay a Frenchman close and you will beat him My only merit in my profession is being a good scholar Captain William Locker's career as a Sea Captain fighting the King's enemies on the high seas makes gripping reading and high drama      Living in the House of God Margaret Malone, 2014-11-21 How should we live in this house of God We know that the way a building is shaped also helps in determining the way those within it live and relate We are indeed formed by what we form Qualities such as integrity hospitality humanity and beauty in a place will enable its dwellers to live lives in which such qualities are evident The way we understand who we are and how we live will be reflected in our places and vice versa Our places become bearers of meaning and memory From Chapter 1 In Living in the House of God Margaret Malone draws on her study of and research on the Rule of Saint Benedict to show the ways in which this ancient rule can illuminate modern life The broad gamut of topics this book examines from Benedictine life as sacrament to Augustine's influence on Benedict to obedience and the art of listening among others is itself a witness to the generous flexibility of the Rule as Benedict proposes a way of life that truly corresponds to the deepest needs of the whole of human nature      The Life of Madame Louise de France, Daughter of Louis XV H.
