This Is Fast Cruising:

This is Fast Cruising Pavilion Books, Peter Johnson, 1985 This is Fast Cruising Peter Johnson, 1986 Cruising World, 1986-07 Cruising World, 1995-01 British Cruisers Norman Friedman, 2011-01-24 For most of the twentieth century Britain possessed both the world's largest merchant fleet and its most extensive overseas territories. It is not surprising therefore that the Royal Navy always showed a particular interest in the cruiser, a multi-purpose warship needed in large numbers to defend trade routes and police the empire. Above all other types, the cruiser's competing demands of quality and quantity placed a heavy burden on designers and for most of the inter-war years Britain sought to square this circle through international treaties restricting both size and numbers. In the process she virtually invented the heavy cruiser and inspired the large 6in armed cruiser, neither of which ironically served her best interests. For the first time this book seeks to comprehend the full policy background from which a different and entirely original picture emerges of British cruiser development. After the war the cruiser's role was reconsidered and the final chapters of the book cover modernisations, the plans for missile-armed ships and the convoluted process that turned the through-deck cruiser into the Invincible-class light carriers. With detailed appendices of ship data and illustrated in depth with photos and A.D. Baker's specially commissioned plans, British Cruisers truly matches the lofty standards set by Friedman's previous books on British destroyers. The Engineer, 1894 The Yachtsman, 1898 Ironclads in action, a sketch of naval warfare from 1855 to 1895 Herbert Wrigley Wilson, 1897 Fast Track to Cruising Steve Colgate, Doris Colgate, 2004-12-10 Learn how to handle a cruising sailboat in as little as seven days even if you've never sailed before. Who says you have to be an experienced daysailer before you can think about cruising? Steve and Doris Colgate know that most of us don't have that kind of time. At the Offshore Sailing School the Colgates have helped more than 100,000 adults, three quarters of whom started as beginning sailors or complete newcomers, take the helm of a midsize cruising sailboat. Now Fast Track to Cruising offers these proven instructional methods to all aspiring sailors with big dreams and little time. This is the very first guide that teaches sailing and cruising together, taking you from your first sail to independent cruising in one leap. You can make that leap in as little as seven days as in the Colgates' Fast Track to Cruising course or you can get there at a more leisurely pace. Either way, no other book will take you from your first tacking or docking maneuver to a mastery of navigation and diesel engines as efficiently as this one. America's most experienced sailing instructors present a thorough and easy-to-understand look at cruising. Leisure time is precious. Safety is paramount. The Colgates will help you maximize your time on the water. Gary Jobson, ESPN's lead sailing analyst and editor at large for Cruising World and Sailing World. Doris and Steve Colgate understand that people want to reach their sailing goals as quickly as possible and they've built the excellent Fast Track program to accomplish it. Bernadette Bernon, former editorial director of Cruising World magazine. Together Steve and Doris Colgate have been teaching beginners to sail for over half a century. In Fast Track to Cruising they have included every concept and procedure.
