Readers Choice Healing Trauma Guide:

Trauma Manual, Fourth Edition Ernest E. Moore, Kenneth L. Mattox, David V. Feliciano, 2003 This concise bulleted manual guides surgeons through the appropriate clinical management of a wide array of situations Distilled from the leading text in trauma surgery this pocket guide includes recommendations for anesthesia pre and postoperative preparation and a new section on the most common laparoscopic and endoscopic procedures 67 illustrations Handbook of Emergent Methods

Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, Patricia Leavy, 2008-02-22 Social researchers increasingly find themselves looking beyond conventional methods to address complex research questions The Handbook of Emergent Methods is the first book to comprehensively examine emergent qualitative and quantitative theories and methods across the social and behavioral sciences Providing scholars and students with a way to retool their research choices the volume presents cutting edge approaches to data collection analysis and representation Leading researchers describe alternative uses of traditional quantitative and qualitative tools innovative hybrid or mixed methods and new techniques facilitated by technological advances Consistently formatted chapters explore the strengths and limitations of each method for studying different types of research questions and offer practical in depth examples Healing and the Healer George F. Cairns, Lawrence Avery Pottenger, Nancy U. Cairns, 1996 Bibliotherapy in the Bronx Emely Rumble, 2025-04-29 Discover how a love of books can foster community understanding and personal growth Bibliotherapy in The Bronx by Emely Rumble LCSW is a groundbreaking exploration of the healing power of literature in the lives of marginalized communities Drawing from her personal and professional experiences Rumble masterfully intertwines storytelling with therapeutic insights to reveal how reading can be a potent tool for self discovery emotional transformation and social change In this transformative work Rumble offers readers an intimate glimpse into her journey as a psychotherapist in the Bronx where she has spent over 14 years using books to help clients navigate complex emotions heal from trauma and find their voices Through vivid anecdotes and real world case studies she demonstrates how literature can serve as a bridge between personal pain and collective healing Rich with practical tips reflective exercises and book recommendations Bibliotherapy in The Bronx is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the power of words to change lives Whether you re a therapist educator bibliophile or simply someone seeking deeper understanding and growth this book offers a compassionate culturally affirming guide to the transformative potential of storytelling Rumble s work is a testament to the enduring power of books to heal empower and liberate In a time when the world feels increasingly divided Bibliotherapy in The Bronx reminds us that the stories we tell and the stories we read can unite us in our shared humanity Therapeutic Exercise Carolyn Kisner, Lynn Allen Colby, John Borstad, 2017-10-18 Here is all the guidance you need to customize interventions for individuals with movement dysfunction You ll find the perfect balance of theory and clinical technique in depth discussions of the principles of therapeutic exercise and manual therapy and the most up to date exercise and management guidelines Executive

Selection David L. DeVries,1993 This report an expanded version of the working document that anchored the 1992 Center for Creative Leadership conference on executive selection summarizes and evaluates the contributions of research and practice to the understanding of how to choose the most effective leaders for organizations Following a brief look at the realities of organizational performance that have led to the growing interest in executive selection an overview of executive selection is presented in the form of nine observations Each observation is comprised of a literature review and recommendations to improve practice The observations are summarized as follows 1 There is much new research from the last 30 years to help increase the odds of picking successful executives 2 corporate executives are not using personnel selection tools 3 a holistic context rich approach is most significant 4 opportunities for managerial growth should be maximized throughout the careers of all candidates 5 more accurate and detailed performance measures of how executives perform must be developed 6 assessment models must be appropriate to the 21st century 7 hiring external candidates poses risks to both the candidate and the organization 8 organizations must promote diversity in leadership by including women and people of color and 9 there is a need to get past ennui and miscommunication about executive selection Appendices contain a list of the conference s principal speakers definitions and list of further questions Contains 108 references LMI The British National
