Telecommunication In Asia Policy Planning Development:

Telecommunications in Asia John Ure,1995-01-01 This book provides searching analysis and a detailed and comprehensive account of telecommunications in the developing economies of Southeast and East Asia

Telecommunications Development in Asia John URE,2008-05-01 No industry has expanded faster than telecommunications gained so many new users added so much value spread so rapidly to the underdeveloped areas of developing countries done so much to close the digital divide and provide access to e learning e health and e commerce across the countries of the Asia Pacific Telecommunications Development in Asia provides a completely new and comprehensive analysis of the policies adopted throughout the region that have led to the explosive growth of this sector It is a sequel to the 1995 landmark publication John Ure editor Telecommunications in Asia Policy Planning and Development and like the earlier volume will become a popular and indispensable guide for professionals policy makers and regulators working in telecommunications related sectors Part One of this new book is thematic It reviews global best practices across a range of key issues facing the industry from regulation competition policy and the provision of universal service to interconnection between competing networks the management of radio spectrum for the all important wireless communications sector and an assessment of innovation in the telecommunications equipment market Part Two examines markets across the Asia Pacific region exploring the themes of Part One through in depth country studies Policy and regulations industry trends and markets are uniquely placed in their historical economic and political context No other publication offers such comprehensive insights and understanding of the dynamic of these markets And like the 1995 book this one looks likely to stand the test of time

Business, Markets and Government in the Asia-Pacific Yun-Peng Chu,Rong-I Wu,2002-09-11 Exploring the thorny issues of industrial organisation competition policy and liberalization in the Asia Pacific region this book examines the ways in which governments regulate business Using case studies from China the USA New Zealand Thailand Malaysia and Japan the authors take a comparative look at the evolution of policies and their implementation on the ground With a specific focus on the energy transport and telecommunications sectors this book represents the most up to date analysis of the ways in which governments in the Asia Pacific are coping with rapid industrial and economic change

IT Development in Korea Kwang-Suk Lee,2012-03-15 This book investigates the contextual factors that led to Korean society becoming broadband heaven the most wired nation in the world by scrutinizing the historical contexts surrounding the Korean Information Infrastructure KII project 1995 2005 which aimed to establish a nationwide high speed backbone network as well as its later evolution which involved redesigning the public infrastructure The book details the hidden mechanisms and the real elements of building the broadband heaven the global constraints conditioning its telecom policies the dense state capital linkages and the bureaucratic desire for social control It draws on the state in society approach to analyze the deformations caused by the symbiosis between the state and big business in implementing the rosy vision of the broadband network This book provides insights into how to formulate future telecom policies along much more democratically participatory lines while restraining the overwhelming power of the telecom oligopolies and conglomerates It stands alone as a comprehensive study of the recent East Asian model of IT development written specifically to examine Korea s socio historical mechanisms for promoting physical speed and broadband mobility This book will be important reading to anyone interested in Korean Studies Information Technology and I T Development ASEAN Business in Crisis Mhinder Bhopal,Michael Hitchcock,2002 The impact of the Asia crisis has contributed to the debate about the need for regulation of global markets This book outlines the events leading up to and during the Financial Crisis of 1997 and assesses the responses of the financial contagion The potential for economic reform is discussed and the willingness of legislators in South East Asia to create a new legal infrastructure to control business is studied The discussion moves to the political arena where the extensive use of the internet as a new medium is discussed using Malaysia as a case in point The next section focuses on specific themes relating to labour capital and political business It studies the response of Malaysian labour to the financial and political crisis Another contribution explores the tourism industry in Bali and Indonesian economic and social meltdown Finally it examines the vulnerability of fast growth in the Thai telecommunications industry and the development of third world multinationals is assessed Unfolding tensions between local and expatriate staff as a result of multinational corporate restructuring are explored China and the Knowledge Economy Carl J. Dahlman,Jean-Eric Aubert,2001 Annotation Argues that in order to address the growing economic social and political pressures of the 21st Century China will have to build solid foundations for a knowledge based economy by updating the economic and institutional regime upgrading education and learning and building information infrastructure Telecommunications and Development in China Paul S. N. Lee,1997 Expanding on the relationship between telecommunications and development this work concentrates on the link between telecommunications and economic growth China s telecoms and their bearing on the country s development are used as an example to further consider this relationship Asia-Pacific Telecommunication Indicators ,1997 Media Asia ,1997 Discourse and Policy in the Philippines Douglas Kenneth Wagner,1999 Privatization and Competition in Telecommunications Daniel Ryan,1997-03-25 Comprises a collection of essays dealing with the process of privatization of telecommunications in Asia Europe and Latin America Examines through case studies how countries respond to the new economic environment Pacific Telecommunications Review ,1995 Private Sector Participation in Telecommunications Laurent Besançon,1999 ASEAN Economic Bulletin ,2002 I-ways ,1995 No Miracle Mitchell Wigdor,2016-05-23 No Miracle examines the role of institutions in bridging the digital divide between rich and poor nations and what that means for the country s integration into a global economy Shifting the debate from whether institutions are important to economic development to which institutions are important and how to build them Mitchell Wigdor expertly addresses fundamental shortcomings in the existing development literature by identifying specific institutions that mediate the relationship between

Information and Communications Technology ICT and economic growth In doing so he challenges those concerned with development to shift their gaze from whether institutions are important to economic development to which institutions might be the focus of government efforts and how to build them Detailed case studies of the economic development strategies of Singapore and Malaysia from 1960 demonstrate that institution building and economic development may be as much about process as the specific policies governments pursue Written in accessible non technical language this book should be read by everyone concerned with economic growth both in less economically developed countries and the more prosperous including those in government international organizations NGOs universities policy makers and the private sector Foreign Investment and Participation in China's Telecommunications Xueping Du,2001 Intermedia ,1996
