Television Magic:

Television, 1957 Virtual Presenting Jamie Cohen, Michael Sorrentino, 2023-03-24 Responding to the widespread and continued acceleration of virtual working practices in recent years Virtual Presenting provides a clear guide to producing presenting and broadcasting in a remote context Unlike traditional studio production where a presenter is surrounded by a crew and cameras the virtual presenter is often isolated or connected to a remote crew Virtual Presenting explains how to make an authentic connection across great spaces linked only via the Internet Topics covered include how to build a virtual setup how to appear on camera how to appear confident and comfortable and how to optimize your presentation voice The authors demonstrate how to tell effective stories across the entire new media landscape of webcasting webinars livestreams and virtual events Finally success stories and case studies from teachers students and professionals are interwoven to show how these guidelines translate into best practices Virtual Presenting will be a valuable resource for students of media production and remote broadcasting as well as professionals looking to become stronger communicators and visual presenters

TV Guide, 1998-06 The Magical Life of Marshall Brodien John Moehring, 2016-04-21 This unique biography details the life of magician Marshall Brodien most remembered for his long running career as television s Wizzo the Wizard on WGN TV s Bozo s Circus and The Bozo Show Coverage begins in the late 1940s when Brodien was a young magician in his first job as a Chicago magic shop demonstrator then recounts Brodien s steady rise to show business success including details of his work as a performer at the Magic Lounge in Cicero and as a nightclub hypnotist in Chicago s posh Cairo Supper Club The work concludes with an examination of Brodien s current career as one of the most successful marketers of magic sets in the U S

Radio Daily-television Daily, 1960 Secular Magic and the Moving Image Max Sexton, 2017-12-14 The power of the moving image to conjure marvelous worlds has usually been to understand it in terms of move magic On film a fascination for enchantment and wonder has transmuted older beliefs in the supernatural into secular attractions But this study is not about the history of special effects or a history of magic Rather it attempts to determine the influence and status of secular magic on television within complex modes of delivery before discovering interstices with film Historically the overriding concern on television has been for secular magic that informs and empowers rather than a fairytale effect that deceives and mystifies Yet shifting notions of the real and the uncertainty associated with the contemporary world has led to television developing many different modes that have become capable of constant hybridization The dynamic interplay between certainty and indeterminacy is the key to understanding secular magic on television and film and exploring the interstices between them Sexton ranges from the real time magic of street performers such as David Blaine Criss Angel and Dynamo to Penn and Teller s comedy magic to the hypnotic acts of Derren Brown before finally visiting the 2006 films The Illusionist and The Prestige Each example charts how the lack of clear distinctions between reality and illusion in modes of representation and presentation disrupt older theoretical oppositions Secular Magic and the Moving Image not only re evaluates questions about modes and styles but raises further questions about entertainment and how the relations between the program maker and the audience resemble those between the conjuror and spectator By re thinking these overlapping practices and tensions and the marking of the indeterminacy of reality on media screens it becomes possible to revise our understanding of inter medial relations And TV, Too! National Education Association of the United States. Department of Classroom Teachers, Raymond Wyman, National Education Association of the United States. Department of Audiovisual Instruction, 1961 The (Magic) Kingdom Of God Michael L Budde, 1997-10-02 Author Michael Budde provides a unique examination of global for profit industries television advertising movies and their impact upon Christian practice He calls for the Christian community to radically re emphasize the subversive theme of the Gospel and to embrace its role as countercultural alternative Television & Cable Factbook ,2008 Television Age ,1962 Radio Daily ,1950 vols for 1945 include Shows of tomorrow annual ed Merlin's Magic Carol H.
