The 7th Sense HEINRICH. The Theosophist, 1889 The Student's Journal, 1889 The 7th Sense Guy Lozier, 2017-12-30 The Seventh Sense is based on a true story of a guy who grew up having extraordinary experiences at different times in his life which culminated in his expanded understanding of reality Along the way he interacts with beings from other dimensional realities He was born just like any other human The only difference was his outlook on life While evaluating his surroundings and those he interacted with he began to understand just how wrong things were in his world Still he developed along just as all the other children Then at a very young age he experienced an unusual presence in his life The first encounter was extremely noticeable to him with it affecting his body vividly This presence communicated with him asking him if he would assist in a project which was very important Of course he agreed Later he became concerned as the presence never explained what the project was He worried what he would be asked to do As he grew into manhood every now and then the presence would make itself known to him by events designed to get his attention but which were extraordinary in nature As he continued to learn more and more the process accelerated until his experiences translated into greater extra ordinary events Now he has seen behind reality Now he knows and begins the project which the presence asked him to assist in long ago To empower the individual to experience and develop the 7th sense
