View From Nowhere:

The ^AView From Nowhere Thomas Nagel,1986-01-23 Human beings have the unique ability to view the world in a detached way but at the same time each of us is a particular person in a particular place each with his own personal view of the world Thomas Nagel s ambitious and lively book tackles this fundamental issue arguing that our divided nature is the root of a whole range of philosophical problems touching every aspect of human life He deals with its manifestations in such fields of philosophy as the mind body problem personal identity knowledge and skepticism thought and reality free will ethics the relation between moral and other values the meaning of life and death

Feminist Views from Somewhere Leslie Gardner,Frances Gray,2016-12-08 Feminist Views from Somewhere Post Jungian Themes in Feminist Theory explores what and how Jungian thought contributes to feminist thinking Broadly speaking feminist thinking or thinking by and about women as autonomous intelligent and independent agents has opened up scholarship through insightful reflective critique and practice This is the starting point of this collection from a range of theorists interested in the multiple concerns of Jungian and analytical psychology The contributors take a unique approach to Jungian thinking Rather than focusing on its mythological aspects the authors develop alternative feminist approaches that enhance the appreciation of the possibilities for Jungian and post Jungian studies With a primarily theoretical orientation the rigorous critical approaches in the collection highlight the possibilities of imaginative Jungian theory Divided into three parts Viewing Earth Clinical Perspectives and Literary Landscapes the chapters cover themes including embodiment intersubjectivity individuation and narrative The contributors vividly reflect the range and diversity of opinions amongst women influenced by Jungian thought Feminist Views from Somewhere is essential reading for academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies women s studies and gender studies as well as analytical psychologists in practice and in training

The Cambridge Companion to Merleau-Ponty Taylor Carman,Mark B. N. Hansen,Mark Boris Nicola Hansen,2005 Publisher Description

Social Contract Theory for a Diverse World Ryan Muldoon,2016-10-14 Very diverse societies pose real problems for Rawlsian models of public reason This is for two reasons first public reason is unable accommodate diverse perspectives in determining a regulative ideal Second regulative ideals are unable to respond to social change While models based on public reason focus on the justification of principles this book suggests that we need to orient our normative theories more toward discovery and experimentation The book develops a unique approach to social contract theory that focuses on diverse perspectives It offers a new moral stance that author Ryan Muldoon calls The View From Everywhere which allows for substantive fundamental moral disagreement This stance is used to develop a bargaining model in which agents can cooperate despite seeing different perspectives Rather than arguing for an ideal contract or particular principles of justice Muldoon outlines a procedure for iterated revisions to the rules of a social contract It expands Mill s conception of experiments in living to help form a foundational principle for social contract theory By embracing this kind of experimentation we move away from a conception of justice as an end state and toward a conception of justice as a trajectory Listen to Robert Talisse interview Ryan Muldoon about Social Contract Theory for a Diverse World on the podcast New Books in Philosophy <http://tinyurl.com/j9oq324> Also read Ryan Muldoon's related Niskanen Center article Diversity and Disagreement are the Solution Not the Problem published Jan 10 2017 <https://niskanencenter.org/blog/diversity-disagreement-solution-not-problem>

Founding Mathematics on Semantic Conventions Casper Storm Hansen,2021-11-04 This book presents a new nominalistic philosophy of mathematics semantic conventionalism Its central thesis is that mathematics should be founded on the human ability to create language and specifically the ability to institute conventions for the truth conditions of sentences This philosophical stance leads to an alternative way of practicing mathematics instead of building objects out of sets a mathematician should introduce new syntactical sentence types together with their truth conditions as he or she develops a theory Semantic conventionalism is justified first through criticism of Cantorian set theory intuitionism logicism and predicativism then on its own terms and finally exemplified by a detailed reconstruction of arithmetic and real analysis Also included is a simple solution to the liar paradox and the other paradoxes that have traditionally been recognized as semantic And since it is argued that mathematics is semantics this solution also applies to Russell's paradox and the other mathematical paradoxes of self reference In addition to philosophers who care about the metaphysics and epistemology of mathematics or the paradoxes of self reference this book should appeal to mathematicians interested in alternative approaches

Loose Women, Lecherous Men Linda LeMoncheck,1997-10-09 Linda LeMoncheck introduces a new way of thinking and talking about women's sexual pleasures preferences and desires Using the tools of contemporary analytic philosophy she discusses methods for mediating the tensions among apparently irreconcilable feminist perspectives on women's sexuality and shows how a feminist epistemology and ethic can advance the dialogue in women's sexuality across a broad political spectrum She argues that in order to capture the diversity and complexity of women's sexual experience women's sexuality must be examined from two equally compelling perspectives that of women's sexual oppression under conditions of individual and institutional male dominance and that of women's sexual liberation both in terms of each woman's pursuit of sexual agency and self definition and in terms of women's sexual liberation as a class Loose Women Lecherous Men sheds crucial new light on such much debated topics as promiscuity adultery sexual deviance prostitution pornography sexual harassment and sexual violence against women Her book supports a dialogue that encourages both women and men to take up a feminist perspective in exploring the meaning and value of sexuality in their lives

Humanitas ,2002 The Subjectivity of the Mental Jeremy W. Bowman,1987 Confucian Ren and Feminist Ethics of Care Lijun Yuan,2019-05-28 The rehabilitation of Confucian tradition raised new challenges to Chinese feminist thinkers Can a Confucian ideal of reciprocity help women realize their equality What is the hope for Chinese women seeking a social ideal of equality given the growing gender gap in the current economic development of China Yuan argues Confucianism cannot help unless it is integrated with feminism In this book Yuan explores why gendered stratifications perpetuated so deeply in today's China through the influences of Confucian cultural tradition but reading early Confucian texts as a cosmological vision of Ren with Dao and ontological oneness as a whole that is the unity of heaven earth and humanism we might reclaim Confucian egalitarian aspects to develop its openness for gender equity with integration of feminist critical care ethics Throughout the book Yuan provides multiple perspectives of comparison relational self vs power differentials gender roles differences vs political demand for equality and individual reciprocity vs connection based reciprocity etc to embrace inclusive methodology and caring democracy We see a great hope to break through stereotypes of binary thinking of Minben people oriented and Minzhu autonomous democracy gender division of labor reason and emotion etc Yuan argues we should integrate feminist critical thoughts of global justice care with early Confucianism since both traditions emphasize caring relationships in humanity and interdependency between social individuals within and beyond their communities in a global scale Importantly the integration enlarges our philosophical visions of how cultural traditions can be undeniable sources for strengthening contemporary social ideas of humanity democracy equality and freedom for all

On Becoming Responsible Michael S. Pritchard,1991 Pritchard provides a deliberate and convincing argument for a starting point for the discussion of moral development on in which self regard and empathy provide equally essential groundings for individual morality Drawing essential elements from the work of Reid Strawson Rawls Kohlberg and Gilligan he builds a comprehensive framework for tracing moral development from childhood one that allows human morality to be grounded in both reason and emotion and that recognizes the importance to morality of justice and rights as well as caring and responsibility

Aircraft Stories John Law,2002-04-24 A case study of a large military aircraft TSR 2 from British Aircraft Corporation which explores modernism and postmodernism and how we might think past the limits that these set to our ways of thinking

Ethical Monotheism, Past and Present Wendell S. Dietrich,2001 In the spirit of Dietrich's work essays by colleagues and former students of the Brown U professor emeritus explore the boundaries of ethical monotheistic religion historically and as a constructive resource for contemporary religious and ethical thought Ethical monotheism the view that monotheistic religion developed toward the prophets central concern with individual and corporate moral behavior has dominated modern religious thought since Kant Dietrich traced its development in Jewish and

Christian contexts in his classic monograph Cohen and Troeltsch and other works c Book News Inc The Journal of Japanese Studies, 1997 A multidisciplinary forum for communicating new information new interpretations and recent research results concerning Japan to the English reading world Geography and Worldview Henk Aay, S. Griffioen, 1998 How do geographers worldviews interact with the discipline of geography In Geography and Worldview the editors begin by mapping two approaches to studying the intersection of science and religious belief an approach that asks what consequences scientists basic beliefs have on scientific research and one that extrapolates implications of their research Essays using both approaches appear in this volume creating a well balanced collection with a variety of perspectives from established scholars in geography The Girl from Nowhere Mrs. Baillie Reynolds, 1910 Outing and the Wheelman, 1884 Critical Thinking and Learning Mark Mason, 2008-05-27 This collection of papers evaluates the goals of critical thinking and of life long and life wide learning all of which appear frequently in the rhetoric of educational reform It discusses what these concepts mean and what societal cultural and educational issues arise from them The Sociology of Gender Sarah Franklin, 1996 The Sociology of Gender combines 21 classic articles on this important topic with a broad ranging editorial introduction Emphasizing the categorical function of gender as a social technology this volume develops a unique approach to one of the most important areas of late twentieth century sociological thought Combining accessible and specialized contributions to the sociology of gender The Sociology of Gender demonstrates the vitality and breadth of gender theory within the social sciences as a whole The book comprises a unique contribution to gender theory in its own right while also providing an up to date and coherent selection of many of the key articles from the past 20 years addressed to sex and gender categories
