Working with Trauma-Exposed Children and Adolescents Joanna Pozzulo, Craig Bennell, 2018-12-07 Far too often children and youth experience trauma from rare events such as mass shootings terrorism attacks and school lockdowns to very common occurrences such as bullying exposure to drugs and alcohol or various mental health issues They can experience these events both directly and indirectly from surfing the internet watching television or through their friends Our children spend a large portion of their day at school interacting with other students teachers and school personnel where these topics are raised and discussed This edited volume addresses how our teachers and school personnel can help students deal with these potentially traumatic events to reach the most positive possible outcomes This collection brings together leading experts including academics and professionals working in the field to provide the most current evidence based practices on how to help students who may have experienced or witnessed trauma It presents research and advice on how to respond to traumatic events regarding bullying drugs and alcohol sexual abuse mental health lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer LGBTQ safety stranger danger childhood disruptive behaviors school shootings and lockdowns and terrorism It also includes a chapter focused on how to implement a school safety program Schools cannot deal with these issues alone effective strategies must engage family members and the broader community Hence the collection includes a chapter on how schools can partner with families and the communities they reside in to bring about positive change All this work pays close attention to cultural and religious sensitivity socio economic variabilities diversity issues and developmental stages

Coalition Commentary ,2007 Trauma-Informed Restorative Dialogues Claudia Christen-Schneider,2025-03-13

This book combines trauma informed practice with restorative justice to explore how restorative dialogues can support those affected by trauma Trauma informed practice involves understanding the impact of trauma and creating an environment that is sensitive to its effects which is essential for fostering meaningful dialogue between victims and offenders Conversely restorative justice focuses on addressing harm through inclusive processes involving victims offenders and the community and aims to respond to the needs of all parties affected by the harm By integrating these perspectives the book illustrates how trauma informed restorative dialogues an approach that expands access to restorative justice when direct encounters between victims and offenders are not possible can improve access to justice promote recovery and facilitate transformation It provides practical guidance based on insights from victims and facilitators in five European countries and offenders in Swiss prisons and addresses secondary trauma among practitioners offering strategies for their self care and organisational care Aimed at practitioners academics policy makers and service providers this in depth research fills a gap in the restorative justice literature by demonstrating how trauma informed principles can strengthen communities and support those affected by serious harm

Contemporary Issues in Equity, Democracy, and Public Education Felicity Crawford,Fadie T. Coleman,Elsa Wiehe,2024-12-30 Contemporary Issues in Equity Democracy and Public Education explores how inequity manifests in public education and social institutions and how this inequity impacts the health and wellbeing of citizens including marginalized people Demonstrating how inequity thereby threatens democracy this book also poses suggestions for improving equity in U S education Taking a multidisciplinary approach to historical and contemporary sources of inequity that operate in social institutions and public policy this carefully curated volume shows how disparities in education levels income housing and health have consequences that reverberate through individuals lives and thereby undermine a democratic way of life Contributions from a wide variety of experts offer approaches to solving these problems as well as curricular innovations for identifying and alleviating systemic inequities Part 1 begins by examining the origins and persistence of systemic inequity in U S public education while Part 2 highlights the physiological psychological and social impacts of systemic bias and how these factors interrupt democratic engagement over time Moving on to examine the curriculum in more detail Part 3 explores how we can promote equity across the curriculum and Part 4 closely considers how we can expand educational opportunities for marginalized groups within STEM education The book will make invaluable reading for graduate students and researchers in Education particularly Social Justice Education Multicultural Education Educational Policy and Politics STEM Education and Social Studies Education as well as policymakers in service teachers administrators and activists The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made
